Blindfold on a Tightrope Ramfis S. Firethorn, 2001-03-11 What makes a Man Perhaps the question ought to be How is a Man made Lets try again By what process is the boy the young male human transformed into that kind of adult human male whom societies recognize as a Man If it were merely a process of physical maturation then the Twentieth Century would not have spent nearly a quarter its literary substance on exploring the question There would be no massive accumulation of psychological difficulties associated with insecurity about the matter Ramfis S Firethorn asserts in Blindfold on a Tightrope that Manhood is a real psychological state attained through ritual Mysteries which a healthy society provides to its young males and that the absence of these Mysteries in post industrial times has been psychologically debilitating to the individual both male and female and culturally devastating to society No one can teach you the Mysteries but in this book which is part anthropological exploration part poetic evocation Firethorn points out some guideposts along the way From the hunt to the dance from ancient myths to modern misconceptions exploring Manhood and Godhead the author offers exercises that may help you identify the Gateway Not for the faint hearted nor prudish this is a journey for those who want a spiritual challenge When first published in 1993 the book was well received by men and women alike but there were those who did not like it and perhaps the best review the most important came from a Southern California High Priestess who stormed into the publishers office slammed her first down on the desk and proclaimed Men must not be allowed to think these thoughts It can be transformative it can also be dangerous

Identity and the Quartered Circle Dorothy Louise Abrams, 2013-06-28 Identity and The Quartered Circle is an eclectic Wiccan discussion of the search for identity through the power of a cast circle and the four directions The book defines the Circle as a container for magic A chapter on psychological identity follows From casting a circle to meeting the Elementals and winged spirits of faerie the author leads the reader on a personal journey in consciousness At its conclusion we can speak intelligently of merger with the Gods and Oneness and the reader can answer the big four questions Who Am I Why am I here Where did I come from and Where am I going Designing the Domestic Posthuman Colbey Emmerson Reid, Dennis M. Weiss, 2023-12-28 Ever since TIME magazine s 1983 Man of the Year was the PC we have been led to believe that our domestic spaces have been colonized by digital technology Too little attention has been paid to the domestic spaces and inhabitants impacted by this and critical posthumanism has been captured by a picture of humanity overly indebted to digital technologies and their largely male progenitors By applying feminist theory to posthumanism this work recovers the plethora of sophisticated human technology mediations associated with the home and practiced primarily by women the elderly infants the disabled and across cultures globally challenging dominant contemporary visions of a future humanity Authors Dennis M Weiss and Colbey Emmerson Reid look at various iterations of the posthuman and assert the need for alternative feminist readings that emphasize different standpoints from which to assess people places and products Chapters address the impact of posthumanism on design theory and look at familiar domestic objects with different attributes from those typically affiliated with technology and the future such as clothing textiles ceramics furniture and wallpaper They reveal their unhomely extra human qualities and offer a much needed perspective on domestic spaces and practices revivifying the home as a site of species transformation and pushing beyond traditional understandings of person mothering families and care giving to highlight a range of critically overlooked mediated materialisms and embodiments affiliated with domestic space By focusing on the neglected intersection of the posthuman with the home and exploring domestic posthuman design Designing the Domestic Posthuman offers a vision of a future humanity that retains identity integrity and considers our relationship to others to the world and things in it This book widens the lens of critical focus in posthumanism feminist philosophy and design and presents an alternative inclusive design framework for the future

Magic and Witchery in the Modern West Shai Feraro,Ethan Doyle White,2019-06-26 This book marks twenty years since the publication of Professor Ronald Hutton s The Triumph of the Moon a major contribution to the historical study of Wicca Building on and celebrating Hutton s pioneering work the chapters in this volume explore a range of modern magical occult and Pagan groups active in Western nations Each contributor is a specialist in the study of modern Paganism and occultism although differ in their embrace of historical anthropological and psychological perspectives Chapters examine not only the history of Wicca the largest and best known form of modern Paganism but also modern Pagan environmentalist and anti nuclear activism the Pagan interpretation of fairy folklore and the contemporary Traditional Witchcraft phenomenon
