Jones, 1995 What task might a society undertake dearer to it than the cultivation of its teachers And when it nurtures them what should it seek but excellence what should it transmit but the highest of its ideals and what should it evoke but the richest expressions of its wisdom and love As David C Jones surveyed young teachers in preparation after nearly thirty years as an educator he felt that many of them would benefit by hearing from those who have advanced in the field who have seen meaning in life and who have embraced life purposefully wholeheartedly and affectionately So what is a master teacher after A heightened awareness of self and of the motives virtues and actions which fulfill it Then a deepened recognition that love fulfills it or more specifically unconditional love This long awaited book begins and ends with ideals In the middle is the interplay between hoping and doing as experienced by eleven outstanding mentors Few stories of the search for teaching excellence are as compelling and insightful The sufficiency of the Spirit's Teaching without Human Learning ... , 1692 How's sermon ... on the Sufficiency of the Spirit's teaching without human learning, (first published in Holland, in 1639.)
