Dual Religiosity in Northern Malawi Joyce Mlenga,2016-12-13 Over a century much of Africa south of the Sahara embraced the Christian religion Malawi where 80% of the population identify as Christian is no exception nor are the Ngonde at its northern border with Tanzania While it is difficult to find someone who does not claim to be a Christian African traditional religion is by no means dead and often practiced by many While the two religions are not mixed but they are both realities in many a Christians life though realities of a different kind The author explores the intricate and often varied relationship between the two and considers factors which increase or decrease dual religiosity Pentecostalism, Catholicism, and the Spirit in the World Stan Chu Ilo,2019-10-17 This volume s essays are an ecumenical ensemble of the best scholars and leading practitioners in the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements from all four corners of the world The contributors bring together various denominational perspectives and dialogue for understanding the present momentum of these Spirit movements in the world church Their diverse methodologies transverse the traditional and new approaches to studying these movements Pointing the way forward the authors highlight some of the lessons learned in their scholarly engagement with Spirit movements These lessons offer significant insight and viewpoints for the academy in the historical analysis of these movements They also serve as a good guide for pastoral discernment and accompaniment for God s people in their daily lives as well as for social ministries in the world church This volume addresses questions of salvation and eschatology health and healing prosperity and poverty suffering and death fear and faith despair and hope Other topics include the conflict between charism and institution and the tension between cultic clericalism and the affirmation and use of the gifts and talents of lay members of Christ s faithful in the church Africa Genesis Pasquale De Marco,2025-08-13 Africa Genesis is a groundbreaking book that takes readers on a journey through the heart and soul of a continent on the rise Through the eyes of its people this book reveals the beauty the struggles and the triumphs of a continent in transformation From the vibrant streets of Lagos to the tranquil shores of Cape Town from the bustling markets of Cairo to the remote villages of the Sahara Africa Genesis unveils the diversity and richness of African culture It is a celebration of the resilience of the African spirit a spirit that has endured centuries of adversity and emerged stronger In these pages readers will encounter ordinary people doing extraordinary things from a young woman who starts a school for girls in a remote village to a doctor who works tirelessly to combat disease in a war torn region They will learn about the challenges that Africa faces from poverty and disease to conflict and corruption but they will also discover a continent brimming with hope and optimism Africa Genesis is a powerful and moving portrait of a continent on the move It is a book that will inspire readers to see Africa in a new light and to appreciate the boundless potential that lies within the heart of every African With stunning photography and insightful storytelling Africa Genesis is a must read for anyone who wants to understand the complexities and the beauty of the African continent It is a book that will stay with you long after you finish reading it Join us on this journey as we explore the heart and soul of Africa a continent that is rising a continent that is ready to take its place on the global stage If you like this book write a review Lessons on Indigenous African Philosophy Marcel Nyuysemo,2024-02-07 This book highlights the specificities of African systems of thought through a wide range of issues on the history branches and problems that animate

the philosophical debates among African authors The book uses the Competence Based Approach to present lessons rooted in real life situations in Africa Since the African philosophy courses of most academic institutions were conceived with a colonial mindset the book provides the theoretical framework for the decolonization of the African mindset and African philosophy course content in academic institutions The book also gives a precise and concise methodology for reading understanding and critically analyzing passages in philosophy in general and African philosophy in particular Hence the book is useful to teachers novice philosophers undergraduate students graduates who wish to specialize in African philosophy and scholars who wish to comparatively analyse African thought systems and other systems of thought across the globe

Community-based Heritage in Africa Peter R. Schmidt, 2017-03-03 This volume boldly shifts focus away from top down community engagements usually instigated by elite academic and heritage institutions to examine locally initiated projects Schmidt explores how and why local research initiatives which are often motivated by rapid culture change caused by globalization arose among the Haya people of western Tanzania This frank appraisal privileges local voices and focuses attention on the unique and important contributions that such projects can make to the preservation of regional history Through a blend of personalized narrative and analytical examination the book provides fresh insights into African archaeology and heritage studies Rethinking Life Emmanuel M. Emmanuel Kolini and missionary Peter Holmes debunk myths about African experience so that Western Christians may glean wisdom from the world's fastest growing church Warriors: Spiritually Engaged Queenae Taylor

Mulvihill, 2006-07-01 In 1994 a small Los Angeles based film crew traveled to East Africa to begin shooting the film production of the award winning film MAANGAMIZI THE ANCIENT ONE WARRIORS SPIRITUALLY ENGAGED was written with the intent to provide information to those seeking to know more about the Maangamizi experience what led up to it and how it came about It is a personal first hand narrative of the journey told through the eyes of its author screenwriter and film producer Queenae Taylor Mulvihill Utilizing vivid reflective and introspective excerpts from her personal journals the struggles of her personal journey are shared with stark honesty It is not merely a behind the scenes film chronology of events Its unique quality is the paranormal and interactive play of ancient Spirits whom the film process awakened This team of filmmakers dared to go to a land rooted in spirits active spirits that for eons have grown accustomed to operating in a tenuous climate of adversity and confrontation Negro Spiritual Meredith, 2020-04-06 Negro Spiritual is a song of spoken word heard reflecting the soul of music inside the African pride and kinship stretching from slave ship to the bop of hip hop and rhythm and blues reflecting queues whipped chained and ordained in the darkest hues of history and the black experience It's a poetic journey into profiles of courage chronicling oppression suppression and misdirection of bravery against the mental slavery brought and taught in books by hook and crooks that lied and tried to hide a people who cried inside cages throughout the pages described by cultural homicide and black genocide on the ride of the Underground

Railroad of pride and perseverance adherence to the drum beat stimulating the feat the black kinship Negro Spiritual is about the blood sweat and tears of years spent in slavery s winter s wrath minus the math of a summer breeze on the backs of pleas and amalgamated songs of jazz and gospel fuse of good news and old time religion meant to dent the roof of possibility educating Afrocentric youth on the proof and poetic justice of beans and greens and cornbread fed straight to the head heart and soul mixed in a bowl of lessons fraught taught and bought and paid by the blood sweat and tears of years spent entangled in the roots of racism Negro Spiritual is the music moments and magic of the ancestors giving rhythm and rhyme traveling through exaggerated time and extension and parallel dimension of imagination reflecting ourselves back to ourselves in rich authenticity and Afrocentricity that reflects the old time religion of a people building miracles out of thin air way beyond the snare of adversarial relationships with the truth We can do all things through the strengths of our ancestors We are heirs to their strengths way down the lengths of time rhyme and sublime crimes of old time religions told traveling through aggravated dimensions of perseverance preoccupied with a stride fortified with fortitude rude to the limitations of the superficial
