myriad causes of the conflict and closely follows the First World War's progress. The Christian Warrior, wrestling with sin, Satan, the world and the flesh ... Abridged, methodized and improved by ... Thomas Jones Isaac AMBROSE, 1837      Moslem World , 1924      The Christian warrior, wrestling with sin, Satan, the world and the flesh. Abridged, methodized and improved by T. Jones Isaac Ambrose, 1837      The Moslem World , 1923      The Muslim World , 1924      Light from the Other Side Jay Harold Ellens, 2011-01-01 This volume presents the narrative of the author's personal spiritual journey which is marked by numerous constructive life-changing paranormal experiences that can only be accounted for as special initiations of the divine spirit providing intimations and illuminations. These events are set in the context of the rich literature available which reports similar events in the lives of many other persons under both normal and extreme circumstances. The author, a clinical psychologist and pastoral theologian, interprets this broad panoply of psycho-spiritual data in terms of psychological science and biblical perspectives. He concludes that the divine spirit is pervasive throughout the universe and present in all the dynamics of life, forms constantly endeavoring to communicate with humans. Thus the paranormal may well be more normal than the normal human experience, and the veil between time and eternity, between the mundane and transcendent worlds, and between life and the life to come, is apparently more permeable in both directions than we suppose.

The Spiritual Background to the First World War Rudolf Steiner, 2024-05-24 With the unprecedented global conflict of the First World War as an overarching theme, Rudolf Steiner addresses timeless issues such as the search for harmony between peoples and nations, the development of the human capacity for love, the contemporary presence of Christ, and the questions of reincarnation and life after death. Speaking in the German city of Stuttgart during and after the war years, Steiner discusses the perpetual tension between East and West, particularly in relation to Europe. The war, he says, arose principally out of the Anglo-Saxon peoples' determination to exercise world domination. Knowing that Slavic culture is destined to be the precursor of the sixth cultural epoch, Western national interests resolved to make Eastern Europe, specifically Russia, the field for socialist experiments. These events were aggravated by the failure of the Central European peoples in their own world-historical task to rise to a broad sense of vision as intermediaries.

between the two groups Throughout Steiner refers to the work of individual Folk Souls but distinguishes them from the scourge of nationalism especially when it is based on blood whilst emphasizing the sovereignty of the individual human being Although more than a century old the enduring themes of these previously untranslated lectures will resonate with many readers today The main text is supplemented with an introduction by Simon Blaxland de Lange editorial notes and an index Sixteen lectures Stuttgart Sept 1914 March 1921 GA 174b Jesus Christ in World History Jan A.
