Spirit In The Writings Of John:

Spirit in the Writings of John Tricia Gates Brown, 2004-05-01 Tricia Gates Brown employs the methodology of socio scientific biblical criticism to investigate the pneumatology of John and 1 John She argues that the meaning of spirit in John and 1 John is best understood using the anthropological model of brokerage The model of patronage and its relevance to the socio cultural world of John s gospel is also discussed Spirit in the Writings of John examines the development in pneumatology between John and 1 John and analyzes what this suggests about the socio cultural context of the Johannine community There is a discussion of the meaning of the term paracletos in literature antedating John and the dominant view that the word was a formal forensic term is challenged

The Writings of John C. A Pneumatology of Race in the Gospel of John Rodolfo Galvan Estrada III, 2019-11-28 How do the Greco Roman views of ethnicity inform our reading of the Spirit in the Fourth Gospel This study not only reviews the role of ethnicity and race in the ancient world it also proposes a bold new understanding of Johannine pneumatology From an ethnocritical perspective this study argues that the Spirit was articulated for an ethnically diverse Johannine community that was dealing with the issues of race relations The Spirit is the divine breath of God that commissions Jesus for the redemption of all ethnicities The Spirit is involved in the maternal birth of all ethnic members who are in the family of God The Spirit draws all people despite their ethnic lineage and heritage And the Spirit is actively involved as an advocate for the minoritized community undergoing synagogue violence Will the members of the Johannine community still hold onto ethnic ideologies of dehumanization that were prevalent of their age Can the Johannine community still have the Spirit and support ideologies of ethnic division and hate This study seeks to answer these questions
