Morgan, 2013-02-27 Humans are lovers and yet a good deal of pedagogical theory Christian or otherwise assumes an anthropology at odds with human nature fixed in a model of humans as thinking things Turning to Augustine or at least Augustine in conversation with Aquinas Martin Heidegger the overlooked Jesuit thinker Bernard Lonergan and the important contemporary Charles Taylor this book provides a normative vision for Christian higher education A phenomenological reappropriation of human subjectivity reveals an authentic order to love even when damaged by sin and loves made authentic by grace allow the intellectually morally and religiously converted person to attain an integral unity Properly understanding the integral relation between love and the fullness of human life overcomes the split between intellectual and moral formation allowing transformed subjects authentic lovers to live seek and work towards the values of a certain kind of cosmopolitanism Christian universities exist to make cosmopolitans properly understood namely those persons capable of living authentically In other words this text gives a full orb'd account of human flourishing rooted in a phenomenological account of the human as basis for the mission of the university The Holy Spirit as Person and Power Rob Yule, 2020-01-10 In just over one hundred years the Pentecostal charismatic movement has transformed world Christianity Noted for their rediscovery of spiritual gifts and commitment to world evangelization 700 million Pentecostals and charismatics now account for more than 27 percent of the global Christian movement The Pentecostal charismatic movement has been more noted for its activism than for theological reflection But this may be changing The Holy Spirit as Person and Power challenges traditional theology to take account of what has been disclosed in the dynamism and variety of charismatic experience The author is a theologically trained practitioner impacted in midlife by a transforming experience of the Holy Spirit He has been a hands on leader in the renewal movement Now in his later years he reflects on the meaning of the grace imparted to the church by the renewing activity of God's Spirit This is not the work of an enthusiast claiming a new revelation Rather the author draws attention to many nuances in the Bible's description of the Spirit that have been overlooked in traditional pneumatology By relating these insights to Orthodox Catholic Protestant and evangelical theology he has produced a book with ecumenical implications for all branches of world Christianity American Book Publishing Record, 2002 Theories of Vision from Al-Kindi to Kepler David C. Lindberg, 1976 Kepler's successful solution to the problem of vision early in the seventeenth century was a theoretical triumph as significant as many of the more celebrated developments of the scientific revolution Yet the full import of Kepler's arguments can be grasped only when they are viewed against the background of ancient medieval and Renaissance visual theory David C Lindberg provides this background and in doing so he fills the gap in historical scholarship and constructs a model for tracing the development of scientific ideas David C Lindberg is professor and chairman of the department of the history of science at the University of Wisconsin Madison

Religious Transformation in Maya Guatemala John P. Hawkins, 2021-05-01 Mayas and indeed all Guatemalans are currently experiencing the collapse of their way of life This collapse is disrupting ideologies symbols life practices and social structures that have undergirded their society for almost five hundred years and it is causing rapid and massive religious transformation among the K'iche' Maya living in highland western Guatemala Many Maya are converting to Christian Pentecostal faiths in which adherents and leaders become bodily agitated during worship Drawing on over fifty years of research and data collected by field school students Hawkins argues that two factors cultural collapse and systematic social and economic exclusion explain the recent religious transformation of Maya Guatemala and the style and emotional intensity through which that transformation is expressed Guatemala serves as a window on religious change around the world and Hawkins examines the rapid pentecostalization of Christianity not only within Guatemala but also throughout the global South The pentecostal wail as he describes it is ultimately an acknowledgment of the angst and insecurity of contemporary Maya The Split God Nimi Wariboko, 2018-02-15 Although Pentecostalism is generally considered a conservative movement in The Split God Nimi Wariboko shows that its operative everyday notion of God is a radical one that poses under cover of loyalty a challenge to orthodox Christianity He argues that the image of God that arises out of the everyday practices of Pentecostalism is a split God a deity harboring a radical split that not only destabilizes and prevents God himself from achieving ontological completeness but also conditions and shapes the practices and identities of Pentecostal believers Drawing from the work of Slavoj Žižek Jacques Lacan Jean-Luc Nancy and Giorgio Agamben among others Wariboko presents a close reading of everyday Pentecostal practices and in doing so uncovers and presents a sophisticated conversation between radical continental philosophy and everyday forms of spirituality By de-particularizing Pentecostal studies and Pentecostalism

Wariboko broadens our understanding of the intellectual aspects of the global Pentecostal and Charismatic movements

Encountering Buddhism in Twentieth-Century British and American Literature Lawrence Normand, Alison

Winch, 2013-10-24 Encountering Buddhism in Twentieth Century British and American Literature explores the ways in which 20th century literature has been influenced by Buddhism and has been in turn a major factor in bringing about Buddhism's increasing spread and influence in the West. Focussing on Britain and the United States, Buddhism's influence on a range of key literary texts will be examined in the context of those societies evolving modernity. Writers discussed include T S Eliot, Hermann Hesse, Virginia Woolf, Jack Kerouac, Allen Ginsberg, J D Salinger, Iris Murdoch, Maxine Hong Kingston. This book brings together for the first time a series of context rich interpretations that demonstrate the importance of literature in this ongoing cultural change in Britain and the United States. Water, Light, and Life Timothy A. Johnston, Paul Radkowski, Rodica Stoiciu, 2021-11-22 Water Light and Life A Lenten Parish Mission provides a reasonably priced and reusable option that will highlight the talent and knowledge of your staff and other parishioners as retreat mission leaders. This multi generational prepackaged mission is practical, adaptable and easy for any parish staff to organize and implement. During this four session mission, participants of all ages will reflect on the stories of the Samaritan woman at the well, the curing of the man born blind and the raising of Lazarus from John's Gospel. It is the perfect way for parish staff to animate parishioners during the Lenten season as the community journeys to Easter and prepares to celebrate baptism and renew baptismal promises. Taking its cue from the Period of Purification and Enlightenment of the RCIA, this mission invites participants to reflect on sin and the need for conversion and renewal just like the three characters who accompany them through the mission. The mission kit includes all the materials the parish staff needs to successfully put on this parish mission. Included in each mission kit is a Director's Guide, 25 participant booklets, a flash drive with all the mission materials and access to an online landing page with PowerPoint presentations, reproducible handouts, a promotional video and marketing materials to promote your mission. Need additional participant's booklets? Go to <https://ltp.org/products/details/WLLWAP>. Water, Light and Life to order in packs of 25 copies. Spirits of extraction Claire Blencowe, 2025-03-18 Spirits of extraction revisits the troubling history of socially reformist, ostensibly anti-racist Christianity and its role in the expansion of the extractive industries, British imperialism and settler colonialism. The book explores key moments in the history of Methodism and the evangelical movement. Colonial fears and the attempt to civilise savages were crucial to the movement's foundation in eighteenth century industrialising Bristol, England. Through the culture of the Cornish mining diaspora of the nineteenth century, Methodism enmeshed with all the complexity of race and labour structures of the British empire. At the same time in Anishinaabewaki, Upper Canada, Ontario, Methodist missionaries laid the foundation of abusive education and racialised ideas of redemption that both enable and sacralise the mining industry. Through these histories of our present, the book theorises the relation of religion and education to racism, modernity, biopower, extractivism and the geology of race.
