Jesus Drives Me Crazy! Leonard Sweet, 2009-12-15 The gospel presents a life changing NUTS wisdom that conflicts with normal ways of making sense of the world There is the World According to Normal There is the World According to NUTS where NUTS is an acronym for Never Underestimate the Spirit The wisdom of Jesus is a NUTS wisdom From the book All people are different but some are more different than others Christians are meant to be the most different of all Yet we often normalize God We judge what is a successful Christian and a successful church by the world according to Normal not the world according to NUTS the wisdom of Jesus In Jesus Drives Me Crazy Leonard Sweet reminds us of the crazy wisdom of Christ and how our lives and our churches can and should be different from the way normal people live He says Jesus wants to drive you crazy crazy in love with God with life Jesus Drives Me Crazy challenges you to make the upside down wisdom of God your own inspiring you to live an extraordinary Christian life that does not conform to the world but transforms the world When you truly grasp the freeing truth that we do not have to conform to this world then you can become the crazy zany unpredictable but powerful force for Jesus you were intended to be Jesus Drives Me Crazy shows how by losing your mind you can find your soul

Intersections of Multiple Identities Miguel E. Gallardo, Brian W. McNeill, 2011-02-11 Over the past two decades there has been an increase in the need to prepare and train mental health personnel in working with diverse populations In order to fully understand individuals from different cultures and ethnic backgrounds practitioners need to begin to examine conceptualize and treat individuals according to the multiple ways in which they identify themselves The purpose of this casebook is to bridge the gap between the current practice of counseling with the newest theories and research on working with diverse clientele Each chapter is written by leading experts in the field of multicultural counseling and includes a case presentation with a detailed analysis of each session a discussion of their theoretical orientation and how they have modified it to provide more culturally appropriate treatment and an explanation of how their own dimensions of diversity and worldviews enhance or potentially impede treatment This text is a significant contribution to the evolving area of multicultural counseling and will be a valuable resource to mental health practitioners working with diverse populations The Fabric of the Future M. inequality Riffing off Alice Walker's telling of her search for Zora Neal Hurston the authors of these essays and reflections offer raw tellings of Black girls and women's experiences written in real time as some of the contributors battled COVID 19 themselves The essays center Black girls and women and their testimonies in hopes of moving them from the margin to the center With a diversity of voices and ages this volume taps into the Black feminine interior that place where Audre Lorde tells us that feelings lie to access knowledge generational past and contemporary to explore how Black women navigate COVID 19 Using womanism and spirituality among other modalities the authors explore deep feelings advancing Black feminist theorizing on Black feminist praxis and methodology In centering the stories of Black girls and women's experiences with COVID 19 this work brings much needed justice and equity to conversations about the pandemic Just as Walker worked diligently to find Hurston Lavender Fields attempts to find Black women amid all we are experiencing ensuring visibility and attention Contributors Tamaya Bailey reelaviolette botts ward Kyrach K Brown Brianna Y Clark Kenyatta Dawson LeCont J Dill Maryam O Funmilayo Brandie Green Courtney Jackson Sara Jean Francois Julia S Jordan Zachery Angela K Lewis Maddox Annet Matebwe Mbali Mazibuko Radscheda Nobles Nimot Ogunfemi J Mercy Okaalet Chizoba Uzoamaka Okoroma Peace Ossom Williamson Elizabeth Peart The Way of Conflict Deidre Combs, 2011-02-08 The Way of Conflict teaches strategies for using ancient wisdom and modern techniques to confidently engage in any dispute and reach a balanced resolution This groundbreaking book integrates the wealth of conflict skills found throughout the world's major religious and indigenous traditions with the latest scientific systems and conflict resolution theory It uses the cross cultural metaphor of the four natural elements earth water fire and air to identify the innate conflict personality types and propose a productive path through the chaos of conflict Combining her extensive experience as a licensed mediator and corporate trainer with wisdom gained from years of spiritual study Combs uses assessment tests anecdotes from indigenous and religious traditions and illustrative folktales to show how to quickly assess a conflict and implement an appropriate resolution strategy Aging, Spirituality, and Religion Melvin Kimble, Susan H. McFadden, 2002-12-01 Volume II picks up where Volume I left off with practical advice and tools for ministry with the aging in a variety of settings Gerontological and theological perspectives undergird the practical guidance and a final section treats of the unique ethical issues involved in ministry with the aging

The Spirit of Our Work Cynthia B. Dillard, 2021-11-16 An exploration of how engaging identity and cultural heritage can transform teaching and learning for Black women educators in the name of justice and freedom in the classroom In The Spirit of Our Work Dr Cynthia Dillard centers the spiritual lives of Black women educators and their students arguing that spirituality has guided Black people throughout the diaspora She demonstrates how Black women teachers and teacher educators can heal resist and re member their identities in ways that are empowering for them and their students Dillard emphasizes that any discussion of Black teachers lives and work cannot be limited to truncated identities as enslaved persons in the Americas The Spirit of Our Work addresses questions that remain largely invisible in what is known about teaching and teacher education According to Dillard this invisibility renders the powerful approaches to Black education that are embodied and marshaled by Black women teachers unknown and largely unavailable to inform policy practice and theory in education The Spirit of Our Work highlights how the intersectional identities of Black women teachers matter in teaching and learning and how educational settings might more carefully and conscientiously curate structures of support that pay explicit and necessary attention to spirituality as a crucial consideration
