Torre,2013-08-20 The relationship of God's grace and man's free will is one of the most disputed topics in the history of Catholic theology At the time of the Counter Reformation a famous quarrel arose between Jesuit defenders of Molina and Dominican defenders of Bañez This led to a series of Roman congregations on the aids of God's grace de auxiliis which looked into the matter but settled very little beyond the pope declaring that neither position was heretical Leo XIII's call to advance Thomism led to this quarrel resurfacing with renewed force in the first quarter of the twentieth century Into this fray stepped a renowned Dominican of the University of Fribourg Francisco Marín Sola 1873 1932 whose published work on the development of Catholic doctrine had secured his fame among Catholic theologians In three celebrated articles published in the Ciencia Tomista in 1925 and 1926 he presented a new and revised version of the Dominican position on this question Marín Sola suggested that his new version rightly developed the principles of Aquinas and was supported in major part if only implicitly by earlier Dominican commentators Marín Sola's position was instantly controversial with some respondents decrying an abandonment of Dominican ideas and others declaring that Marín Sola had resolved central objections and ended the quarrel of de auxiliis In this book Michael D Torre makes Marín Sola's articles available in English for the first time The articles are preceded by an introduction on Marín Sola and followed by a conclusion that traces the reception of his thought within the Catholic theological community In Torre's afterword he defends Marín Sola's position as substantively the same as that of Aquinas ABOUT THE AUTHOR Michael D Torre associate professor of philosophy at the University of San Francisco is author of God's Permission of Sin and editor of Freedom in the Modern World Torre is president of the American Maritain Association and serves as general editor of AMA Publications The Ethics of Interpretation Pol Vandeveld,2023-03-07 This book discusses the ethical dimension of the interpretation of texts and events Its purpose is not to address the neutrality or ideological biases of interpreters but rather to discuss the underlying issue of the intervention of interpreters into the process of interpretation The author calls this intervention the ethical aspect of interpretation and argues that interpreters are neither neutral nor necessarily activists He examines three models of interpretation all of which recognize the role that interpreters play in the process of interpretation In these models the question of the truth or validity of interpretation is dependent upon the attitude of interpreters These three models are 1 the principle of charity in interpretation in the two different versions defended by Hans Georg Gadamer and Donald Davidson 2 the production of truth as developed by Paul Ricoeur and Michel Foucault and 3 the regulative principle in interpretation as formal validity claims as presented by Karl Otto Apel and Jürgen Habermas and as benevolence or love as an epistemic virtue as defended by Friedrich Schlegel and Friedrich Schleiermacher The critical discussion of these three models which brings to the fore the different manners in which interpreters intervene in the process of interpretation as persons lays the foundations for an ethics of interpretation The Ethics of Interpretation will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in hermeneutics 19th and 20th century philosophy literary theory and cultural theory
