Pupils will benefit from developing a diverse and accurate understanding of the changing nature of Africa throughout history, linking the continent's social history with its geographical features. Part 2 The Caribbean builds upon the lesson plans of Part 1 to further highlight the interconnectedness of diaspora cultures in influencing the musical, visual, and religious practices of the Caribbean and Central America. Part 3 begins by addressing the incorrect assumption that the history of Black people in the Americas begins and ends with plantation slavery. Instead, this section proposes a range of in-depth lesson plans on the diverse histories, cultures, and experiences of Black people within the United States. Created by BLAM UK, this highly informative yet practical resource is an essential read for any teacher, teaching assistant, or senior leader who wishes to diversify their curriculum and address issues of Black representation within their school.
