Rowe Wright, C Francis Loomis, Marta K. Sironen, 1924 Spirits of the Border IV Ken Hudnall, Sharon Hudnall, 2005 The fourth book in the Spirits of the Border series This one deals with unsolved mysteries lost treasures mysterious disappearances and hauntings in the State of New Mexico The complete camper guide for Denmark , My Incredible Paranormal, Spiritual, and Out of the Box Experiences Martin K. Ettington, Many of my friends who know me well and know some of my experiences insist I should write an autobiography because many people will find my stories fascinating My life has been about my spiritual and paranormal explorations of the world and studies of our universe These views are discussed in over one hundred books which is detailed near the end of this autobiography These stories include a spirit attacking me many prophecies of mine some of which saved my life Also a fight with a bear in the wilderness and many other strange experiences which includes a spiritual enlightenment event and specific memories from before my birth during and just after it My education as an engineer at a top school has also led me to an analytical point of view about the world but I've also remained open to new and impossible experiences without denying that they really happened This has led me to a pretty unique point of view as a writer about many out of the box subjects which some professionals condemn as illusionary but many individuals really experience The experiences of my life in this book should also give you a good idea of the circumstances which created the person I am today and why I write the books that I do I've grouped my major life experiences mostly sequentially but some things which took place over longer periods of time are grouped together So there is some overlap in different chapters of my life But you can see how all these topics blend together Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1997 The Spirits of Bad Men Made Perfect Constance Hall Jones, 2019-11-13 This remarkable biography and edited diary tell the story of William Ellis Jones 1838-1910 an artillerist in Crenshaw's Battery Pegram's Battalion the Army of Northern Virginia One of the few extant diaries by a Confederate artillerist Jones's articulate writings cover camp life as well as many of the key military events of 1862 including the Peninsula Campaign the Second Battle of Manassas the Maryland Campaign and the Battle of Fredericksburg In 1865 Jones returned to his prewar printing trade in Richmond and his lasting reputation stems from his namesake publishing company's role in the creation and dissemination of much of the Lost Cause ideology Unlike the pro Confederate books and pamphlets Jones published primary among them the Southern Historical Society Papers his diary shows the mindset of an unenthusiastic soldier In a model of contextualization Constance Hall Jones shows how her ancestor came to embrace an uncritical veneration of the army's leadership and to promulgate a mythology created by veterans and their descendants who refused to face the amorality of their cause Jones brackets the soldier's diary with rich biographical detail profiling his friends and relatives and providing insight into his childhood and post war years In doing so she offers one of the first serious investigations into the experience of a Welsh immigrant family loyal to the Confederacy and makes a significant contribution to our understanding of Civil War era Richmond and the nineteenth century publishing industry

Invitingly written The Spirits of Bad Men Made Perfect is an engaging life and times story that will appeal to historians and general readers alike
