Leithart, 2018-02-22 The Book of Revelation is the last book in the canon of the New Testament and its only apocalyptic document though there are short apocalyptic passages in various places in the gospels and the epistles This first of two volumes on Revelation offers systematic and thorough interpretation of the book of Revelation Revelation brings together the worlds of heaven earth and hell in a final confrontation between the forces of good and evil Its characters and images are both real and symbolic spiritual and material and it is frequently difficult to know the difference between them Revelation's cryptic nature has ensured that it would always be a source of controversy This commentary focuses on the theological content gleaned the best from both the classical and modern commentary traditions and showing the doctrinal development of Scriptural truths Scholarship on the book of Revelation has nonetheless not only endured but even captured the imagination of generations of Bible students both professionals and laypeople alike Through its focus on the message of the book through scholarly analysis this International Theological Commentary reconnects to the ecclesial tradition of biblical commentary as an effort in ressourcement though not slavish repetition The Lavish Hospitality of God Jim Reynolds, 2009-06 The Lavish Hospitality of God is the compelling journey of a pastor who enters the church through the side door from a legalistic childhood church into a more biblical vision of the kingdom of God The author recounts the blessings of his heritage along with his struggle in allowing God to reshape his understanding of water baptism the role of the Holy Spirit and the Lord's Supper in a way that reflects the apostolic church's teachings Through a careful study of how the early disciples ate together the book dispels the way the evangelical church has turned the love feasts and common meal into a Jesus and me moment of silence This is a call to rethink the Lord's Supper and other church ordinances as an expression of the outrageous and sometimes scandalous hospitality of God and a sign of His kingdom presence Jim Reynolds holds a bachelor's and a master of divinity degree from Abilene Christian University 1964 1967 a doctorate from the Graduate Theological University Berkeley Calif 1974 and a law degree from SMU 1981 He has been a licensed marriage and family counselor and has published numerous articles and books including Secrets of Eden God and Human Sexuality 1974 and The Lepers Among Us 2007 Jim has taught religion theology philosophy and biblical studies at Pepperdine University and the University of Texas and presently is an adjunct professor at Dallas Christian College He also does mediation for Dale O Neall and Associates in Fort Worth Texas From 1981 to 2007 Jim was a family lawyer and partner with the Whitaker Chalk law firm in Fort Worth Texas Since 1984 he has been pastor of Lake Highlands Church in Dallas Texas Jim and his wife Donna have two children and eight grandchildren The Oxford Companion to Spirits and Cocktails David Wondrich, Noah Rothbaum, 2021-10-20 The Oxford Companion to Spirits
