Igbo Mythologies is a journey into the mysteries of life and death of the Igbos of Nigeria The book draws readers into the Igbo people s ancient and traditional beliefs about life and death There is a very thin line dividing the land of the living and the land of the dead so thin that spirits from both lands coexist Sometimes during the story it is difficult to differentiate between the living and the dead Both have bodies the living existing in their bodies while the dead exist in are using borrowed bodies Fifteen year old Osondu has disappeared His mother goes searching for her son and faces the same fate She too goes missing The gods are ever present in control and minister to both the living and the dead This is because the gods minister to the spirits not the bodies that harbor them To the gods the spirits of both the living and the dead are ever alive The world of the traditional Igbo society is a world in which the dead visit and interact easily with the living It is also a world in which most of the time the living are at the mercy of the gods

Of Ghostes and Spirites, Walking by Night And of Straunge Noyses, Crackes, and Sundrie Forewarnings, Which Commonly Happen Before the Death of Men: Great Slaughters, and Alterations of Kingdoms Lewes Lauaterus of Tigurine,2020-09-28 I thought it not amisse to take in hand some good and learned Treatise concerning this matter Wherein as many haue both learnedly painfully and religiously trauelled so amongst others none in my iudgement hath more handsomly eloqu tly with more iudgment better method discoursed the same th Lewes Lauaterus Minister of Tigurine Others haue h dled it indeed wel but yet Nihil ad nostr hunc being either too short or too long or too darke or too doubtful or otherwise so c fused that they leaue the Reader more in suspence in the end then they found him in the beginning As for Maister Lauaterus his discretion heerein I will no otherwise commend it then to desire the Reader to view and iudge himself For thus much at the first sight he shall see A cleare methode with a familiar and easie stile the matter throughly handled Pro and Con on both sides so that nothing seemeth to be wanting nor any thing redounding And if it be true that Horace saith Omne tulit punctum qui miscuit vtile dulci that is He winneth the prize that ioyneth pleasure with profit I thinke this Authour may also in this respect be pronounced Victor and adiudged to the best game For he so intreateth this serious and terrible matter of Spirits that he now and th inserting some strange story of Monks Priestes Friers and such like counterfeits doth both very liuely display their falshood and also not a litle recreate his Reader and yet in the end he so aptly concludeth to the purpose that his histories seeme not idle tales or impertinent vagaries but very truthes naturally falling vnder the compasse of this matter And how profitable this his woorke is those may best iudge which are most ignorant in this question some thinking euery small motion noyse to be Spirites and some so fondly perswaded that there are no Spirits who being better enformed herein by this Authour I suppose will confesse his work to haue done them some profit if knowledge be profitable and ignorance discommodious And againe those which being hitherto borne in hande that mens soules returne againe on earth crauing helpe of the liuing and haue spent much of their substaunce on idle Monkes and Friers to relieue them will confesse the like For when they shall see they haue bene falsely taught and that they were not the soules of men which appeared but either falshood of Monks or illusions of diuels franticke imaginations or some other friuolous vaine perswasions they will thinke it profitable to haue knowne the truth as well to auoid error hereafter as to saue their mony from such greedy caterpillers Some also which be otherwise well trained vp in Religion and yet not knowing what to thinke of these matters will not iudge their labour euill employed nor the worke vnprofitable wherby they may be brought out of doubt and know certainly what to beleue There be many also euen now a dayes which are hanted troubled with spirites and know not howe to vse themselves who when they shall learne how a Christian man ought to gouern himselfe being vexed with euil spirits wil think it a very profitable point of doctrine that shal teach them to direct themselves Profitable therefore it is and shalbe no doubt vnto many and disprofitable vnto none except perchance vnto popish Monks and Priests who are like hereby to lose a great part of their gaines which sometimes they gathered together in great abundaunce by their deceitfull doctrine of the appearing of dead
