Spiritual Authority And Temporal Power:

Spiritual Authority and Temporal Power René Guénon, 2001 Spiritual Authority and Temporal Power is an analysis of cyclical manifestation and more specifically of the relationship between royal and sacerdotal power In accord with the Hindu doctrine of manvantaras and Plato's depiction of historical degeneration in the Republic Guénon views history here as a series of revolts of lower castes against the higher The kshatriyas warriors revolt against the brahmins priests thus setting the stage for a revolt of the vaishyas loosely the bourgeoisie as in the French revolution and finally the shudras the proletariat as in the Russian revolution which Guénon does not touch upon in this work From one point of view this is a progressive degeneration from another it is entirely lawful given the entropic nature of manifestation itself External historical descent reflects an inner degeneration knowledge the celestial paradise is eclipsed by heroic action the terrestrial paradise which is in turn overrun by the inertia and agitation of the passions Yet the nadir of degeneration is also the point of renewal the dawning of the Heavenly Jerusalem spiritual Knowledge which begins a new cycle of manifestation

Political Illiberalism Peter L.P. Simpson, 2017-09-08 This book deconstructs the story of liberalism that John Rawls author of Political Liberalism and many others have put forward Peter L. P. Simpson argues that political liberalism is despotic because it denies to politics a concern with the comprehensive human good political illiberalism overcomes this despotism and restores genuine freedom In Political Illiberalism Simpson provides a detailed account of these political phenomena and presents a political theory opposed to that of Rawls and other proponents of modern liberalism Simpson analyses and confronts the assumptions of this liberalism by challenging its view of liberty and especially its cornerstone that politics should not be about the comprehensive good He presents the fundamentals of the idea of a truer liberalism as derived from human nature with particular attention to the role and power of religion using the political thought of Aristotle the founding fathers of the United States thinkers of the Roman Empire and contemporary practice Political Illiberalism concludes with reflections on morals in the political context of the comprehensive good Simpson views the modern state as despotically authoritarian consequently seeking liberty within it is illusory Human politics requires devolution of authority to local communities on the one hand and a proper distinction between spiritual and temporal powers on the other This thought provoking work is essential for all political scientists and philosophy scholars
