Spiritual Bankruptcy John B. Cobb JR.,2010-09-01 In these times many people feel that their cherished religious values are held hostage by the forces of secularization and that as a consequence society is morally bankrupt While acknowledging this problem John Cobb overturns the prevailing expectations by drawing a distinction between secularization and secularism Secularization as Cobb uses the term has a prophetic function It is a process by which religion is cleansed and refocused on mission and ministry rather than on other worldly myths and concerns The uncritical understanding of religion that focuses on religion for its own sake is what Cobb calls secularism In Cobb s view secularization has led to secularism or a culture of consumerism that threatens those very religious convictions many hold dear After teasing the concepts of secularization and secularism apart Cobb proposes an alternate path for secularization that will help us reevaluate our relation to our world and each other "Spiritual Bankruptcy": 'Tapping Into Your Faith, Will Awaken That Dormant Place' Minister

Lucky,2003-09 Have you ever felt as if the faith that brought you to Christ has now been lying in a torpid state That the cares of this life have begun to drain you of the massive abundance that God once spoke into your life Rest a sure children of God you can come back to the intimate place in him that you so carelessly left The lord has given to each one of us a measure of faith we as believers have to simply tap into it and began to exercise that faith We have to remember that our faith is on trial James tells us this very fact in his book We need to be reminded of this daily and allow the lord to come back into the bed chambers and stir up that which once lied dormant Victory is already ours so why have the saints of God stop believing Its simple when the lord allowed me to step back and take a look at where I was and what I had been up too I saw that the enemy had me looking at that which was tangible instead of placing my hopes in the heavenly places I realized that I had to repent and do my first works all over again I am a witness that if you pray the simple pray of belief God will began to manifest him self unto you all over again You will fall in love with him again not for what he can give you or what he has done for you But love him because of who he is God Men and women of God who have been redeemed for ten fifteen and twenty years or more hallelujah can and will be revived The Truth Does Set Us Free Kathleen E.
