known ritual pattern toward saints in the history of Christianity In a dramatic reframing of what is holy and secular Sacred Matters makes a powerful and illuminating case that religion is everywhere and that we have barely begun to reckon with its hold on our cultural life The Universe of Oz Kevin K. Durand, Mary K. Leigh, 2010-03-08 The Wizard of Oz has captured the imagination of the public since publication of L Frank Baum's first book of the series in 1900 Oz has shaped the way we read children's literature view motion pictures and experience musicals Oz has captured the scholarly imagination as well The seventeen essays in this book address numerous questions of the boundaries between literature film and stage and these have become essential to Oz scholarship Together the essays explore the ways in which Oz tells us much about ourselves our society and our journeys Invocations Jacob Glass, 2000-09-18 In Invocations Jacob Glass reminds us of a God who cares and of a Universe that is ultimately loving Through prayers exercises and essays which cover a variety of topics and which affirm the goodness and beneficence of Divine Spirit he takes us on a journey of hope and inspiration for daily living There is a quiet peaceful center of love wisdom and strength that lives in the human heart and soul Yet often we disconnect from deeper values and meaning We become so busy we tend to forget what our purpose is and that we have Spiritual Aid Living a life of faith is difficult if not impossible without a daily connection to our inner selves As our lives become busier and busier it is imperative that we take time to regularly focus on what is most important so that we may more powerfully participate in our own lives Prayer is the ancient and sacred practice of talking with God communing with the Divine As we consciously seek God God is revealed to us Undreamed of possibilities emerge from these dialogues The Restorative Nature of Ongoing Connections with the Deceased Laurie A. acceptance joy abundance and wellness It connects us with our eternal being within and encourages us to create our own soul music without Have we lost our way as a society In the wake of humans murdering over 100 million other humans in the past century many of us are seeking answers to the ever increasing cultural violence surrounding us From capital punishment to going postal we live in a very violent society Hardly a day passes without news of government torture prisons drive by shootings a ten year old boy murdering his father or a congresswoman being shot in the head Shocking revelations such as American government doctors using unsuspecting American citizens as human guinea pigs for decades of medical experiments further alienate the government from the people that they are supposed to serve It seems to me that we need a new vision of humanity that our faltering institutions have failed to provide I believe that we need to replace institutional blight with greater spirituality We need a new spirit of integrity that replaces the often deceitful and violent leadership we currently embrace We need to challange the don't get mad get even mentality in our society with greater understanding for one another We need to be role models for positive reinforcement learning rather than the punishment that only teaches more violence and hatred and like the Montagues and Capulets the never ending need to seek revenge This book addresses how to live a life of health and wellness in the midst of a truly sick society Collaborative Spirit-Writing and Performance in Everyday Black Lives Bryant Keith Alexander, Mary E. Weems, 2021-11-11 Collaborative Spirit Writing and Performance in Everyday Black Lives is about the interconnectedness between collaboration spirit and writing It is also about a dialogic engagement that draws upon shared lived experiences hopes and fears of two Black persons male female straight gay This book is structured around a series of textual performances poems plays dialogues calls and responses and mediations that serve as claim ground warrant qualifier rebuttal and backing in an argument about collaborative spirit writing for social justice Each entry provides evidence of encounters of possibility collated between the authors for ourselves for readers and society from a standpoint of individual and collective struggle The entries in this Black performance diary are at times independent and interdependent interspliced and interrogative interanimating and interstitial They build arguments about collaboration but always emanate from a place of discontent in a caste system designed through slavery and maintained until today that positions Black people in relation to white superiority terror and perpetual struggle With particular emphasis on the confluence of Race Racism Antiracism Black Lives Matter the Trump administration and the Coronavirus pandemic this book will appeal to students and scholars in Race studies performance studies and those who practice qualitative methods as a new way of seeking Black social justice Spirituality and Meaning Making in Chronic Illness Kelly Arora, 2020-02-21 Many spiritual caregivers including chaplains spiritual directors and clergy are unaware of how they can support people with chronic health conditions This book combines insights on chronic illness with spiritual care skills and suggestions to enhance well being for people living with long term illness Using a narrative approach the author reflects on the stories of two women Dorothy from The Wizard of Oz who travels from Kansas a state of health to Oz an
