Spiritual Power Of Truth:

Spiritual Power of Truth Joel S. Goldsmith, 1998 Jesus said Ye shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make you free What is this Truth that we must know What is the freedom that it gives These are some of the questions answered by Joel Goldsmith in Spiritual Power of Truth The fact that Truth is Understanding Spiritual Power Marguerite G. Kraft, 2003-08-18 While secularized cultures of the West have a great deal of difficulty dealing with the spiritual as a real non imaginary dimension of life most of the world's peoples do not Having worked and studied among peoples of several non Western societies Marguerite Kraft is convinced that coming to terms with spiritual power presents one of the greatest challenges for all those who work among non Westerners in pastoral or mission situations Understanding Spiritual Power addresses the dynamics of the felt need for spiritual power in relation to a people's assumptions values and commitments in order to provide a foundation for meaningful Christian witness in power oriented societies The Western Church Kraft argues under pressure from modern rationalism has largely lost awareness of God's power and position vis a vis the spiritual realm so important in other societies Indeed this loss of power could be one reason for the interest in Eastern and New Age philosophies on the part of Westerners disillusioned with the modern worldview Having worked among the Kamwe in Nigeria the Thai in Asia and the Navajo in North America Kraft focuses on specific ways in which people in these three societies view reality and suggests how the gospel can be articulated in forms they can understand Understanding Spiritual Power offers a theological as well as a practical perspective on spiritual power By exploring living societies providing examples and case studies and offering specific strategies this book makes a powerful case for rethinking and recasting traditional missiological methods At the same time it helps Western Christians with ears to hear question whether they might not learn as much from those with whom they work as they seek to teach Spiritual Power Mark Griffin, 2008-07-01 This book comes from the 2008 Summer Retreat held in Joshua Tree and includes the 3 days of talks given by Mark Griffin there as well as three talks in the following weekly meetings that dealt with the aftermath and continuing effects of the Summer Retreat It also includes the following Intensive given by Mark in July when he continued the theme of coming into one's own power What Is Here Is Everywhere The principle themes of this book deal not only with what is Spiritual Power but also what it means to one's own sadhana their spiritual evolution to attain power and be granted access to pure power How do we come into our own power What are the psychological issues we must face to do this What is the importance of addressing the dark side of our psyche and what stands in the way of our ability to do so What is it like to meditate in the heart of one of the earth's power vortices As Mark Griffin says Power is possibility All possibilities are related to the presence or absence of power There's different kinds of power There is the power of the City which is social power higher and lower classes economic power having a lot or having a little That's one kind of power There's also a kind of power that is just sheer force Sometimes it's quiescent sometimes it's wrathful and swift We will be studying the unseen power of spirit It is the true power It is awesome It is

Iv. 4] Preached June 16th, 1859, Before the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, Etc Thomas HINCKS,1859 A Society Fit for Human Beings E. M. Adams,1997-10-31 A Society Fit for Human Beings contends that there is a profound incoherence in the foundations of modern Western civilization and that we are on a self destructive course With the quest for wealth and power our dominant concern we find ourselves with a flourishing economy and a supreme military force based on science and technology but with our moral civic and religious culture undermined by our way of comprehending the world Our human identity is problematic the wells of meaning that nourish the human spirit are polluted or drying up and the social order is in disarray This situation E M Adams argues requires nothing less than a historic cultural revolution based on a shift in priorities from wealth and power to humanistic values those grounded in selfhood and lived experience that are essential for human growth meaningful lives and a healthy society Such a shift in our governing values would require a restructuring of our intellectual vision of humankind and the world in terms of humanistic categories those grounded in lived experience the categories of the humanities This book shows the import of such a humanistic cultural revolution for our human identity morality the social order and our major institutions including the family and community education the economy the government the military and religion It outlines how we can work toward such a cultural revolution and develop a constructive postmodern civilization with a society fit for human beings Arcana coelestia: or Heavenly mysteries contained in the sacred Scriptures, or Word of the Lord, manifested and laid open [an exposition of Genesis and Exodus].
