The Philosophical Foundations of Early German Romanticism Manfred Frank, 2012-02-01 Often portrayed as a movement of poets lost in swells of passion early German Romanticism has been generally overlooked by scholars in favor of the great system builders of the post Kantian period Schelling and Hegel In the twelve lectures collected here Manfred Frank redresses this oversight offering an in depth exploration of the philosophical contributions and contemporary relevance of early German Romanticism Arguing that the early German Romantics initiated an original movement away from idealism Frank brings the leading figures of the movement Friedrich Schlegel and Friedrich von Hardenberg Novalis into concert with contemporary philosophical developments and explores the role that Friedrich Schlegel and other members of the Homburg Circle had upon the development of early German Romantic philosophy Theory as Practice Jochen

Schulte-Sasse, Haynes Horne, 1997 Theory as Practice was first published in 1997 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions In light of recent dramatic revisions in criticism of European particularly German Romanticism this anthology brings together key texts of the movement especially those written in the last quarter of the eighteenth century by a small influential circle centered at Jena In their introductory essays the editors locate writings by Fichte Schelling Novalis August Wilhelm Schlegel and Friedrich Schlegel among others in this context The selections include extensive excerpts from the correspondence of the Jena Romantics their commentaries on each other's work their most pertinent essays fragments and dialogues as well as diary entries and reviews These works together with the editors articulation and elaboration of their significance provide a new perspective on the provenance of postmodern thought and literary theory Jochen Schulte Sasse is professor of German and comparative literature at the University of Minnesota and coeditor with Wlad Godzich of the Theory and History of Literature series at the University of Minnesota Press Haynes Horne University of Alabama Andreas Michel Indiana University Assenka Oksiloff New York University Elizabeth Mittman Michigan State University Lisa C Roetzel University of Rochester and Mary R Strand each received a Ph D from the University of Minnesota Catalog of Copyright
