Spiritual Theology A Systematic Study Of The Christian Life:

Spiritual Theology Simon Chan, 2025-10-14 Academy of Parish Clergy Top Ten Book Theology is the doctrine of living unto God wrote the Puritan theologian William Ames Unfortunately post Enlightenment theology has tended to divorce doctrine from living unto God And to the degree that this split has been deepened and perpetuated both theology and spirituality have been impoverished Spiritual Theology is a rare book In it Simon Chan surveys the little explored landscape where systematic theology and godly praxis meet highlighting the connections between Christian doctrine and Christian living and drawing out the spiritual implications of particular aspects of systematic theology Allowing rational formulations to drop into the background he brings the mystery of the faith to the fore Chan begins with the principal doctrines of God sin salvation and the church He then progresses to a reflective consideration of the practice of the spiritual life from prayer to spiritual direction Unabashedly evangelical and truly ecumenical Chan grounds his exploration in the sources of the Protestant Catholic and Orthodox traditions His work is well abreast of contemporary theological currents and crossculturally conversant from an Asian perspective Spiritual Theology is a book for those who care deeply about theology and spirituality and strive to integrate the two It is well worth careful reflection and prayerful reading Spiritual

Theological Hermeneutics in the Classical Pentecostal Tradition L. William Oliverio, 2012-08-01 In Theological Hermeneutics in the Classical Pentecostal Tradition L William Oliverio Jr accounts for the development of Classical Pentecostal theological hermeneutics through four hermeneutical types and concludes with a philosophical basis for future Pentecostal theological hermeneutics within the contours of a hermeneutical realism Empowered Witness (Foreword by Kevin DeYoung) Alan D. Strange, 2024-01-23 Rediscovering the Spirituality of the Church in Our Highly Politicized Age The goal of the church should be simple share the gospel to the ends of the earth But in our highly politicized age Christians can tend to place earthly political and social agendas over God s spiritual mission of the church In Empowered Witness author Alan D Strange examines the doctrine of the spirituality of the church making a clear distinction between the functions of the church and other institutions Strange argues that if the church continues to push political agendas no institution will be focused solely on the Great Commission and the gospel will be lost entirely This book calls readers to become aware of the church s power and limits and shed light on moral issues in a way that doesn t alter the deeply spiritual and gospel centered mission of the church Explores the Spirituality of the Church An important biblical doctrine developed in the 19th century Appeals to Thoughtful Laypeople and Church Leaders Considers the critical distinctions between the church and other institutions Historical Examines the purpose of the church throughout history and the development of the spirituality of the church in the 19th century Foreword by Kevin DeYoung Author of Just Do Something Crazy Busy and The Biggest Story

Types of Pentecostal Theology Christopher A. Stephenson, 2016-10 In this the first critical study of the major theologians of pentecostalism Christopher A Stephenson establishes four original categories that classify recent pentecostal theologians methodologies in systematic constructive theology Pentecostal Theology and the Christian Spiritual Tradition Simon Chan, 2011-07-12 This book deals with the problem of Pentecostal traditioning Traditioning has been ineffective thus far because the richness of Pentecostal faith and experience has been inadequately captured in the classical Pentecostal doctrines of Spirit baptism and glossolalia A more adequate understanding of the key theological symbol of Pentecostalism glossolalia emerges when it is interpreted in the light of Christian spiritual tradition Within this larger tradition glossolalia can be seen as bringing together both the ascetical and contemplative dimensions of the Christian life Chan thus explores the shape of Pentecostal ecclesiology as traditioning community Subversive Spirituality L. Paul Jensen, 2009-08-01 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture's increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time. This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions. Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word. Specifically, Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus, the early church, the apostolic fathers, Origen, the Devotio Moderna, the early Jesuits, David Brainerd, and several women in 19th century Protestant missions. He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960. Based on the theological, historical, cultural, and field analyses of this study, a model for spirituality and mission is proposed. The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras. Jensen's model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures. A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy, which also has application for non-formal leadership development structures, is also proposed.
