Spiritual Foundation Of Morality The:

The Spiritual Foundation of Morality Rudolf Steiner, 1995 Moral teaching and moral preaching cannot establish morality It is only by delving into the hidden secrets of life that we can advance not just to moral doctrines but to the moral sources of life true moral impulses At different times humanity has manifested moral life in different ways To understand these differences the evolution of consciousness must also be taken into account Originally morality was a part of human nature for in their essence human beings are good But through evolution there have come errors deviations times of falling away In this small much loved cycle of three lectures Rudolf Steiner indicates the sources for the recovery of a living morality for our time Rudolf Steiner shows the transformation of the virtues through the evolution of consciousness and above all through the incarnation of the Christ in the Mystery of Golgotha Since then morality works to build up Christ s being Synopses Why morality needs to be studied Preaching morality v founding morality examples of ancient India devotion to wisdom and ancient Europe courage Leprosy in the Middle Ages The biography of Francis of Assisi the transformation of courage into love The reality of moral forces The caste system differentiation as to a law of evolution The betrayal of the Atlantean Mysteries the consequences for the European population Racial evolution v soul evolution The demons of leprosy overcome by the Christ impulse in Francis of Assisi Francis s prior incarnation the mysteries at Colchis and the Buddha Francis s faith in the original goodness of humanity Plato s four virtues The nature of evil and freedom the teaching of the mean Interest as a precondition for understanding and moral conduct Spiritual Science as divine wisdom stimulates interest During the third post Atlantean cultural epoch interest was regulated by the instinctive virtue of wisdom today interest must be regulated by conscious truthfulness The lack of truthfulness in modern times theosophy as an educator of truthfulness Truthfulness as the virtue of the sentient soul Courage as the instinctive virtue of the mind soul in the fourth epoch today in the fifth epoch it must become love based on understanding This is promoted by a theosophical comprehension of the Christ Temperance as the virtue of the consciousness soul is still instinctive in the fifth epoch it will be replaced by life wisdom in the sixth epoch The effect of spiritual scientific wisdom on the body The virtue of justice Knowledge of the suprasensory world through wonder astonishment faith The evolution of conscience The Christ impulse is naked it must be clothed by impulses of wonder love conscience Founding v preaching morality the reality of the Christ impulse v abstract ideals of brotherhood How goodness builds and evil destroys This volume is a partial translation of Theosophische Moral CW 155

The Spiritual Foundation of Morality Rudolf Steiner, 19?? The Spiritual Foundation of Morality Rudolf Steiner, 1995-10-01 Laurence

Oliphant is one of the great unknown personalities of the nineteenth century and indeed of recent cultural history at large He was born at Cape Town in 1829 and died near London in 1888 He left behind some twenty books including novels travel accounts and mystical spiritual writings He was diplomat traveler adventurer writer and mystic At the beginning of the 1860s the period of Oliphant s great spiritual transition began when he met the Swedenborgian Thomas Lake Harris It was Oliphant

s last works Sympneumata and Scientific Religion that prompted Rudolf Steiner to pursue karmic research on Oliphant As a result Steiner revealed the karmic relationship between the lives of Oliphant and the Roman poet Ovid In an August 24 1924 lecture in London Steiner commented that Oliphant s individuality is significant not only because of the previous Ovid incarnation but also because of its activity in the interval between the two incarnations Looked at in the light of spiritual research on the subject Oliphant s life assumes dimensions of world historical interest When a Stone Begins to Roll contains extensive selections from Oliphant s autobiographical book Episodes in a Life of Adventure or Moss from a Rolling Stone 1887 In addition to the insightful commentary of T H Meyer the book also offers a generous sampling of Oliphant s complex and compelling work as well as hitherto unpublished material and the satire The Sisters of Tibet The Spiritual Foundations of Society Semen Li[u]dvigovich Frank, 1987 Semyon Ludvigovich Frank 1877 1950 wrote major works on epistemology ontology philosophy of religion and social philosophy As a youthful Marxist he was arrested and banned from major Russian cities for his radical activities Becoming dissatisfied with Marxism he soon turned to idealism and then to religious philosophy Professor of Philosophy at Moscow University until 1922 when he was expelled to the West Frank worked in exile until his death in London in 1950 The Spiritual Foundations of Society is Frank s attempt to examine society as a type of spiritual being to develop an ontology of society Two ideas are central to his vision of future social thought The first of these sobornost from the Russian sobirat to gather is the living inner organic unity of all human societies Its primary form is the family unit Opposed to sobornost is obshchestvnnost obshchyi general or common the mechanical aspect of society in which the separate parts act to mutually limit and constrain one another The second idea is the principle of service as the most general expression of the ontological essence of man and therefore the highest normative principle of social life According to Frank all human right are grounded in one innte right the right to fulfill obligations the opportunity to serve Thus Frank reconciles the principles of solidarity and individual freedom through common subordination to the principle of service Though writing in the late twenties Frank addresses fundamental concepts of the ground of social life applicable to all periods of history His introduction of concepts from the Russian tradition enables us to see problems in a new light and his approach focused on concepts of community and service challenges the now dominant materialistic and naturalistic theories of the nature of social life Christ and the Human Soul Rudolf Steiner, 2023-07-05 10 Lectures in Copenhagen and Norrk ping May 23 30 1912 July 12 16 1914 CW 155 Spiritual science does not want to replace Christianity rather it aims to be the instrument through which the meaning of Christianity can be grasped And one thing that will become particularly clear through spiritual science is that the being whom we call Christ must be recognized as the center of life on earth and that what we call the Christian faith is the ultimate religion the eternal religion for the future of the earth Rudolf Steiner July 13 1914 This collection of lectures from 1912 and 1914 offers a deepened understanding of the being of Christ the divine Logos in his connection with individual human souls From religious figures such as John the Baptist and Saint Francis to the twentieth century poet Christian Morgenstern these lectures reveal how Christ works with and through all who seek him The Pauline statement Not I but Christ in me becomes an inner guide by which each human soul can find a way to intimate union with the Christ being It is he who has the power to make our ideals and goals in life if they are worthy into true seeds of future reality The time of faith has come and gone Christ needs our conscious striving our effort to understand within the heart s deep core his ongoing presence and activity in the further evolution of our spiritual Earth and in our journey toward humanness These lectures are a comfort and a signpost for the soul to walk the inner path of communion with Christ for the healing and redemption of the earth We may be able in the end to redeem the karma accrued by our own individual souls but for our spiritual work to be fruitful for all humanity it must be brought into connection with Christ What we take into ourselves in such a way that it is done from the perspective of Not I this is what Christ makes into a common possession for all humanity July 14 1914 To know Christ means to undergo the school of selflessness Under the influence of materialism the selflessness of humanity was lost in a way as will be understood in future ages of humanity However through absorption in the Mystery of Golgotha the penetration of the knowledge of the Mystery of Golgotha with our whole feeling and soul being we can once again acquire a culture of selflessness We can come to understand that what Christ did for the development of the Earth is contained in the fundamental impulse of selflessness and that what he can become for the conscious development of the human soul is the school of selflessness Rudolf Steiner June 1 1914 To read these lectures is to strike out on the heart s path of fellowship with the living Christ This book is a translation from German of Christus und die Menschliche Seele ber den Sinn des Lebens Theosophische Moral Anthroposophie und Christentum GA 155 3rd ed Rudolf Steiner Verlag Dornach Switzerland 1994 Cover image Salvator Mundi 1499 1510 by Leonardo da Vinci

Evangelicals and the Continental Divide Samuel Harold Reimer, 2003 In Evangelicals and the Continental Divide Sam Reimer finds surprising levels of uniformity among evangelicals on both sides of the border He shows that both American and Canadian evangelicals share highly similar religious identities central beliefs moral and subcultural boundaries and social attitudes Reimer found that American evangelicals did not distinguish themselves through greater conservatism or greater commitment but did connect politics and faith to a much greater extent than their Canadian counterparts while evangelicals in Canada evinced greater tolerance He argues that these differences point to an enduring importance of national historical and cultural differences whereas regional differences are not as significant Using data obtained from 118 in depth interviews with evangelicals in both countries as well as a representative poll of 3 000 Canadians and 3 000 Americans Reimer details the inner workings of the evangelical subculture and gives us an understanding of evangelical similarities and differences across the two nations from a focus on education in several lectures he discusses experiences during sleep the human spirit and soul between death and a new birth how spirit sculpts the human organism Christ from the perspective of anthroposophy the battle for human nature between luciferic and ahrimanic beings karma and the creation of conditions for our return to a new life on earth human experience of the etheric cosmos and the human being's faculties of hearing speaking singing walking and thinking Together these lectures offer a cornucopia of spiritual insights and wisdom for the present day Religion, Rationality and Community Robert Gascoigne, 2012-12-06 This study is an attempt to examine the relationships between religious belief and the humanism of the Enlightenment in the philosophy of Hegel and of a group of thinkers who related to his thought in various ways during the 1840s It begins with a study of the ways in which Hegel attempted to evolve a genuinely Christian humanism by his demonstration that the modern understanding of man as a free and rational subject derived its strength and validity from the union of God and human existence in the incarnation The rest of this study is concerned with two different forms of opposition to Hegel first the critical discipleship of the Young Hegelians and Moses Hess who insisted that Hegel's notion of Christian humanism was false because religious belief was necessarily inimical to a clear consciousness of social evil and the determination to abolish it second the religious opposition to the Enlightenment in the thought of Schelling and Kierkegaard which emphasized God's transcendence to human reason and the insignificance of secular history In the years leading up to the revolution of 1848 Hegel's synthesis was rejected in favour of the assertion of atheistic humanism or religious otherworldliness Chapter One after discussing the young Hegel's critique of the social and political effects of Christianity examines the union of religious belief speculative philosophy and the rational state in Hegel's mature system
