Meditation as Spiritual Therapy Matthew McWhorter, Matthew R. McWhorter, 2024

Christian persons today might seek spiritual development and ponder the benefit of mindfulness exercises but also maintain concerns if they perceive such exercises to originate from other religious traditions Such persons may not be aware of a long tradition of meditation practice in Christianity that promotes personal growth This spiritual tradition receives a careful formulation by Christian monastic authors in the twelfth century One such teaching on meditation is found in the treatise De consideratione written by St Bernard of Clairvaux c 1153 to Pope Eugene III c 1153 In textual passages where St Bernard exhibits a clear concern for the mental health of the Pope due to numerous ongoing ecclesial political and military problems St Bernard reminds Eugene III of his original monastic vocation and the meditation exercises associated with that vocation The advice that St Bernard gives to Eugene III can be received today in a way that provides a structure for Christian meditation practice which is relevant for personal development spiritual direction and civil psychotherapy that integrates a client's spirituality into the course of treatment St Bernard thus might be interpreted as a teacher of a kind of Christian mindfulness that can benefit both a person's mental health as well as a person's relationship with God

Meditation as Spiritual Therapy examines the historical context of Bernard's work his purpose for writing it as well as the numerous Christian sources he drew upon to formulate his teaching Bernard's teaching on the course of meditation itself is explored in depth and in dialogue with his other treatises letters and sermons Lastly a contemporary summary of Bernard's teaching is provided with reflections concerning the relationship of this teaching to contemporary spiritual direction and spiritually integrated civil psychotherapy

The Mystical Presence of Christ Richard Kieckhefer, 2022-09-15 The Mystical Presence of Christ investigates the connections between exceptional experiences of Christ's presence and ordinary devotion to Christ in the late medieval West Unsettling the notion that experiences of seeing Christ's figure or hearing Christ speak are simply exceptional events that happen at singular moments Richard Kieckhefer reveals the entanglements between these experiences and those that occur through the imagery language and rituals of ordinary everyday devotional culture Kieckhefer begins his book by reconsidering the who and the how of Christ's mystical presence He argues that Christ's humanity and divinity were equally important preconditions for encounters both exceptional and ordinary which Kieckhefer proposes as existing on a spectrum of experience that moves from presupposition to intuition and finally to perception Kieckhefer then examines various contexts of Christ manifestations during prayer meditation and liturgy for example with attention to gender dynamics and the relationship between saintly individuals and their hagiographers Through penetrating discussions of a diverse set of texts and figures across the long fourteenth century Angela of Foligno the nuns of Helfta Margery Kempe Dorothea of Montau Meister Eckhart Henry Suso and Walter Hilton among others Kieckhefer shows that seemingly exceptional manifestations of Christ were also embedded in ordinary religious experience Wide ranging in scope and groundbreaking in methodology The Mystical Presence of Christ is a magisterial work that rethinks the interplay between the exceptional and the ordinary in the workings of late medieval religion Nicholas of Cusa and His Age: Intellect and Spirituality Thomas M. The Art of Meditation and the French Renaissance Love Lyric Michael Giordano, 2010-01-01 The Art of Meditation and the French Renaissance Love Lyric examines the poetics of meditation in the French love lyric at the height of the Lyonnais Renaissance as illustrated by one of the country's most prominent writers Maurice Scève's Dile is the first French sequence of poems devoted to a single woman in the manner of Petrarch's Rime It is also the first Renaissance work to use emblems in a sustained work on love At their core most amatory lyrics involve a triple relation among lover beloved and the meaning of love Whether the poet lover is a man or woman poetic discourse generally takes the form of an interior monologue frequently intermingled with direct and indirect address to the beloved Though the dominant quality of this lyric is personal introspection Michael Giordano finds Dile to be consistent with traditions of Christian meditation He argues that the amatory lyric served as a vehicle for contests of value and paradigm change not only because it was conditioned both by sacred and profane sources but also because it occurred at a time of religious upheaval and scientific revolution
