Spiritualism A Challenge To The Churches In Europe:

Spiritualism Ingo Wulforth, 2004      Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483-1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism      Cities and the Making of Modern Europe, 1750-1914 Andrew Lees, Lynn Hollen Lees, 2007-12-13 A survey of urbanization and the making of modern Europe from the mid eighteenth century to the First World War      Challenging Religion James A. Beckford, James T. Richardson, 2003-09-02 Leading scholars examine the growth of new religious movements or cults in the US and Europe over the last 50 years and state attempts to monitor and control them debating the political practical and ethical issues which arise      Modern Spiritualism and the Church of England, 1850-1939 Georgina Byrne, 2010 Shows how some of the ideas about the afterlife presented by spiritualism helped to shape popular Christianity in the period From the moment of its arrival in Britain in 1852 modern spiritualism became hugely popular among all sections of society As well as offering mysterious and entertaining strange phenomena spiritualism was underpinned by a belief that the living could communicate with the departed and even come to know what life after death looked like This book offering the first detailed account of the theology of spiritualism examines what happened when the Church of England itself already grappling with questions about the nature of the afterlife met with such a vibrant and confident presentation Although this period saw a gradual liberalising in the Church's own theology of heaven and hell this was not communicated to the wider public as long as sermons and liturgy remained largely framed in traditional language Over time spiritualism already embedded in common culture explicitly influenced the thinking of some Anglican clergy and implicitly began to permeate and shape popular Christianity to the extent that even some of spiritualism's harshest critics made use of its colourful imagery This study sets one significant aspect of Christian doctrine alongside an attractive alternative and provides a fascinating example of the negotiation of belief the way in which in the interface between Church and culture religious belief came to be refreshed and redefined

New Age, Neopagan, and New Religious Movements Hugh B. Urban, 2015-09-15

New Age Neopagan and New Religious Movements is the most extensive study to date of modern American alternative spiritual currents Hugh B Urban covers a range of emerging religions from the mid nineteenth century to the present including the Nation of Islam Mormonism Scientology ISKCON Wicca the Church of Satan Peoples Temple and the Branch Davidians This essential text engages students by addressing major theoretical and methodological issues in the study of new religions and is organized to guide students in their learning Each chapter focuses on one important issue involving a particular faith group providing readers with examples that illustrate larger issues in the study of religion and American culture Urban addresses such questions as Why has there been such a tremendous proliferation of new spiritual forms in the past 150 years even as our society has become increasingly rational scientific technological and secular Why has the United States become the heartland for the explosion of new religious movements How do we deal with complex legal debates such as the use of peyote by the Native American Church or the practice of plural marriage by some Mormon communities And how do we navigate issues of religious freedom and privacy in an age of religious violence terrorism and government surveillance

Spirit, Faith and Church Laurence Lux-Sterritt, Claire Sorin, 2011-10-18

Contradictions are legion when it comes to women and spirituality In Christian cultures the worth of the female sex is highly ambivalent since virginity and motherhood are construed respectively as badges of purity and fruitfulness whilst the biological processes which underlie them are considered taboo or impure Throughout history women are in turn represented as inferior defective creatures or as privileged empty vessels in their relationship with the divine This polarized conception of woman has influenced the way in which religious institutions learned writers or indeed women themselves consider the female personal and collective relationship with the supernatural with the divine and with the institutions which represent it Through eleven original essays this volume questions how women from the English speaking world have negotiated their roles in the spiritual and religious spheres From early modern Catholics and Puritan groups to twenty first century nuns Anglican ministers and Mormons how did women define their roles in male dominated institutions How did they react to the public perceptions of their bodies as either incompatible with or facilitating access to the divine The questions at the core of this book hinge upon the articulation between the female self body and soul and its experience of the preternatural of faith and of institutionalized groups Are there specific forms of female spirituality and do they lead to a feminized feminist conception of God

Church as Fullness in All Things Mark W. Birkholz, Jonathan Mumme, Richard J. Serina, Jr., 2019-06-25 What is Lutheran ecclesiology The Lutheran view of the church has been fraught with difficulties since the Reformation Church as Fullness in All Things reengages the topic from a confessional Lutheran perspective Lutheran theologians and clergy who are bound to the Holy Scriptures and the Lutheran Confessions explore the possibilities and pitfalls of the Lutheran tradition's view of the church in the face of contemporary challenges. The contributors also take up questions about and challenges to thinking and living as the church in their tradition while looking to other Christian voices for aid in what is finally a common Christian endeavor. The volume addresses three related types of questions faced in living and thinking as the church with each standing as a field of tension marked by disharmonized though perhaps not inherently opposite poles: the individual and the communal, the personal and the institutional, and the particular and the universal. Asking whether de facto prioritizations of given poles or unexamined assumptions about their legitimacy impinge the church, Lutherans seek the volume closes with Anglican, Reformed, and Roman Catholic contributors stating what their ecclesiological traditions could learn from Lutheranism and vice versa.
