Spirituality Of Hope:

The Fabric of Hope Glenn Tinder, 2001 This superb new volume is addressed to everyone interested in hope regardless of their religious or philosophical beliefs Glenn Tinder one of our most astute and creative thinkers probes the failure of modern secular hope and shows with great sensitivity and openness why the tenets of Christian faith offer a true and meaningful source for hope amid the widespread distress confusion and despondency of contemporary life From The Critics Jean Bethke Elshtain Glenn Tinder argues compellingly that modern despondency flows from a collapse of unreasonable optimism about our individual and collective prospects By contrast to despondency and brittle optimism Tinder calls for a renewal of hope Framed by Christian belief Tinder's elegant essay reaches out to appeal to all men and women troubled by our current condition A beautifully written and touching work Michael Novak Tinder's weighty essay on the nature spirituality and politics of hope offers an illuminating perspective on a central pillar of civilization Mary Ann Glendon A pristine intellectual and spiritual achievement by one of the most penetrating thinkers of our day Richard John Neuhaus With this essay Tinder once again vindicated his reputation as one of the most incisive thinkers and graceful writers working today His is a most powerful argument that only a hope that has come to terms with all the reasons for despair can sustain us into a future that we do not and cannot control Tinder's wisdom is in knowing that attention to first things requires facing up to last things
