Karl Barth's Theology of Relations, Volume 2 Gary Deddo,2015-08-04 This work originally published as one volume in the Peter Lang series Issues in Systematic Theology is now available in two volumes In the first volume Gary Deddo shows how Barth grasped the nature of relations as intrinsic to the being and act of the Triune God and to God's relations to us and our relationship to God in Christ Deddo then completes his comprehensive survey showing how Barth saw the reality of the divine relationships analogically pertains by grace to humanity and its creaturely relationships Barth's doctrine of God Christology and theological anthropology are all intrinsically onto relational to borrow a term coined by Thomas F Torrance In the second volume Deddo shows how Barth's relational theology is intrinsically ethical As a case study Deddo explicates Barth's ethical teaching on the relationship between parents and children found in section 54 of his chapter on Freedom in Fellowship in CD III 4 He further demonstrates the relevance and fruitfulness of Barth's theology of relations for critically engaging other theological and non theological views of the family and for shedding ethical light on a wide range of contemporary issues facing families especially in the North American context Karl Barth is known for his insight into the inseparability of act and being in God What is less recognized is that Barth's theological understanding of dynamic covenantal relationship is also essential to his doctrine of the Triune God his Christology and theological anthropology God is revealed in Jesus Christ to be one in act being and relation Humanity is revealed in Jesus Christ to be essentially a unity of act being and relation The failure to see the ethical implications of Barth's theology can be traced in large part to the failure to grasp how Barth's understanding of God's being and act is also essentially relational Deddo's work corrects this oversight and opens up the door to better comprehension of Barth's trinitarian doctrine of God his Christology anthropology and ethics

Human Suffering and the Evil of Religion Dennis Jensen,2018-01-25 Dennis Jensen looks at two very important problems that have led many to reject religious belief generally and Christianity in particular Why has God allowed the extreme suffering we find in our world And Can religion be blamed for much of this suffering He looks at not only the evil so often associated with religions inquisitions holy wars pogroms witch hunts but also some of the difficulties found specifically in the Bible Did the God of the Bible command or advocate mass murder homophobia slavery Is the New Testament anti Semitic Jensen argues persuasively that a fully biblical teaching does not advocate subservience of women in today's society church or family It does not condemn all same gender sexual relations or transgender identity It does not teach an eternal hell As just one of the many fascinating topics he tackles one of the more important biblical reasons suggested for the existence of evil is that God wants to know whether we will seek to stop or alleviate the suffering we see whether we will learn to have God's heart whether we will hate evil and anguish over the hurting as God does 100
