Šāpūr Šahbāzī, 2010 Iran After the Mongols Sussan Babaie, 2019-11-28 Following the devastating Mongol conquest of Baghdad in 1258 the domination of the Abbasids declined leading to successor polities chiefly among them the Ilkhanate in Greater Iran Iraq and the Caucasus Iranian cultural identities were reinstated within the lands that make up today's Iran including the area of greater Khorasan The Persian language gained unprecedented currency over Arabic and new buildings and manuscripts were produced for princely patrons with aspirations to don the Iranian crown of kingship This new volume in The Idea of Iran series follows the complexities surrounding the cultural reinvention of Iran after the Mongol invasions but the book is unique capturing not only the effects of Mongol rule but also the period following the collapse of Mongol based Ilkhanid rule By the mid 1330s the Ilkhanate in Iran was succeeded by alternative models of authority and local Iranian dynasties This led to the proliferation of diverse and competing cultural religious and political practices but so far scholarship has neglected to produce an analysis of this multifaceted history in any depth Iran After the Mongols offers new and cutting edge perspectives on what happened

Analysing the fourteenth century in its own right Sussan Babaie and her fellow contributors capture the cultural complexity of an era that produced some of the most luminous masterpieces in Persian literature and the most significant new building work in Tabriz Yazd Herat and Shiraz Featuring contributions by leading scholars this is a wide ranging treatment of an under researched period and the volume will be essential reading for scholars of Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern History

The Message Āyatullah Ja'far Subḥānī,1984 This book presents an inspiring material based on authentic historical documents One of its salient features is that the author has taken extreme care in narrating historical events and at the same time he has endeavoured as a research scholar to approach them with an analytical mind also Another interesting feature of this book is that it is absolutely free from heresies and concocted stories invented by vested interests In other words it is quite in keeping with the required standard of the historical veracity In short it is addressed to the Muslims in general without any bias and prejudice

World Heritage in Iran Ali Mozaffari,2016-02-11 Pasargadae is the location of the tomb of Cyrus the Great founder of the Achaemenid Empire Through the ages it was Islamised and the tomb was ascribed to the Mother of Solomon It was only at the beginning of the twentieth century that archaeological evidence demonstrated the relationship between the site and Cyrus and it was appropriated into conflicting political discourses on nationalism and Islamism while concurrently acknowledged as a national and then a World Heritages site However Pasargadae is neither an isolated World Heritage site nor purely a symbol of abstract state politics Pasargadae and its immediate vicinity constitute a living landscape occupied by villagers nomads and tourists This edited volume presents for the first time a broad multi disciplinary examination of Pasargadae by experts from both outside and within Iran It specifically focuses on those disciplines that are absent from existing studies such as ethnography tourism and museum studies providing valuable insights into this fascinating place In its totality the book argues that to understand World Heritage sites and their problems fully a holistic approach should be adopted which considers the manifold of perspectives and issues It also puts forward a novel approach to the question of heritage

representation and construction of collective identity from the framework of place      Persian Influence on Art, Architecture, Philosophy and Culture of Indian Subcontinent Dr Anu Dhawan, 2023-01-03 Indo Iranian cultural relations are a continuous historical process starting from the gray dawn of the common united life of the ancestors of these two great Asian civilizations as part and parcel of the original Indo European stock The process has unfolded itself in history through alternate phases of harmony and conflict and has percolated down to our times The ancestors of Iranian and Indian Aryans of history are believed to have lived in a common habitat in Central Asia as an undivided ethnic group from the fourth millennium to that of the third millennium B C They shared a common life experience and were inextricably linked up on the cultural level in spite of their numerous internal differences and conflicts From this common habitat the inhabitants migrated in two branches towards the west and the east between circa 4000 and 3000 B C Those who moved towards the east entered Iran and India where they were to develop their distinctive civilizations throughout the succeeding ages The undivided Indo Iranians are believed to have lived for about a millennium circa 4000 3000 B C In this period they lived a common life and developed a specific Indo Iranian civilization culture and religion which we can partially reconstruct by a comparative study of the Veda and the Zend Avesta There are amazing similarities in their language culture and religion which strike us as little short of identity From time immemorial the Orient has been the cradle of civilization that amongst all other Oriental countries Iran and India stand first and foremost in their contribution to world culture and that these two nations were the torch bearers of knowledge the forerunners of a fine civilization at a time when the civilized countries of the modern world were still plunged in dim obscurity of ignorance countries of modern world were still plunged in dim obscurity of ignorance Linguistic affinities national kinship and distinctive racial characteristics constitute the inseparable bonds of friendship and fellowship that have brought the two nations together from the earliest times throughout the course of history These two countries have been tied together by strong and lasting bonds and both in ancient times and during the medieval era their cultures have profited mutually by a continual exchange of knowledge and ideas These lasting ties prompted Jawaharlal Nehru the first Prime Minister of independent India to write in his famous book Discovery of India Dr Anu Dhawan
