The Art and Material Culture of Iranian Shi'ism Pedram

Khosronejad,2011-11-30 Shi i Islam has been the official religion of Iran from the Safavids 1501 1732 to the present day The Shi i world experience has provided a rich artistic tradition encompassing painting sculpture and the production of artefacts and performance which has helped to embed Shi i identity in Iran as part of its national narrative In what areas of material culture has Iranian Shi ism manifested itself through objects or buildings that are unique within the overall culture of Islam To what extent is the art and architecture of Iran from the Safavid period onwards identifiably Shi i What does this say about the relationship of nation state and faith in Iran Here leading experts trace the material heritage of Iranian Shi ism within each of its political religious and cultural dimensions

The Word in the Wilderness Alexander Lawrence

Ames,2020-06-29 Once a vibrant part of religious life for many Pennsylvania Germans in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Fraktur manuscripts today are primarily studied for their decorative qualities The Word in the Wilderness takes a different view probing these documents for what they tell us about the lived religious experiences of the Protestant communities that made and used them and opening avenues for reinterpretation of this well known if little understood set of cultural artifacts The resplendent illuminated religious manuscripts commonly known as Fraktur have captivated collectors and scholars for generations Yet fundamental questions about their cultural origins purpose and historical significance remain Alexander Lawrence Ames addresses these by placing Fraktur manuscripts within a Pietist paradigm grounded in an understanding of how their makers viewed the Word or scripture His analysis combines a sweeping overview of Protestant Christian religious movements in Europe and early America with close analysis of key Pennsylvania devotional manuscripts revealing novel insights into the religious utility of calligraphy manuscript illumination and devotional reading as Protestant spiritual enterprises Situating the manuscripts in the context of transatlantic religious history early American spirituality material culture studies and the history of book and manuscript production Ames challenges long held approaches to Pennsylvania German studies and urges scholars to engage with these texts and with their makers and users on their own terms Featuring dozens of illustrations this lively engaging book will appeal to Fraktur scholars and enthusiasts historians of early America and anyone interested in the material culture and spiritual practices of the German speaking residents of Pennsylvania

Communicating Ruth Finnegan, 2014-01-10 Many accounts of human communication suggest that we are limited to communicating through words visual images the mass media and by digital means This perspective underestimates the multisensory qualities of much of our human interconnecting and the multiple sounds touches sights and material objects which humans use so creatively to interconnect both nearby and across space and time Ruth Finnegan brings together research from linguistic and sensory anthropology alternative approaches to material culture and the body non verbal communication cultural studies computer mediated communication and illuminating work on animal communication Examples from both western and non western cultures together with plentiful illustrations enrich and deepen the analysis The book uncovers the amazing array of sounds sights smells gestures looks movements touches and material objects which humans use so creatively to interconnect both nearby and across space and time resources consistently underestimated in those western ideologies that prioritise rationality and referential language Focussing on embodied and material processes and on practice rather than text this comparative analysis challenges the underlying cognitive and word centred model common to many approaches to communication The second edition of Communicating includes a new introduction updates to take account of recent work an additional chapter covering ethereal non verbal non bodily communicating such as telepathy and dreams fresh illustrations a new conclusion and updated bibliography This authoritative but accessible book is an essential transdisciplinary overview for researchers and advanced students in language and communication anthropology and cultural studies

The Social Life of Art Peter Stupples, Jane Venis, 2014-11-10 This study examines not only the objects and processes that make up the artworlds of human history but also the social and cultural circumstances the historicised contexts that bring about their making frame their functioning inform their properties and influence their effects both at the time of their creation and throughout their subsequent biographies In the short span that art has played a part in human life one may conceive of time as a social river with a strong current towards the capricious mainstream and eddies and quiet pools near the banks The current will flow faster in spate and slower in drought But it will be forever in motion It will be unpredictable Nothing will stop its inexorable force Art runs in that social river subject to the flow and chance of time

Without Boundary Fereshteh Daftari, 2006 Is it possible to speak of a contemporary art with an Islamic difference This question will be the subject of an exhibition that brings together artists who come from the Islamic world but who live and work mostly in Europe and the United States Tapping into certain aesthetic political and spiritual notions commonly associated with the Islamic world the book seeks to highlight the nuanced reactions of each individual artist Epigraphy and Islamic Culture Mohammad Yusuf Siddiq, 2015-11-19 Architectural inscriptions are a fascinating aspect of Islamic cultural heritage because of their rich and diverse historical contents and artistic merits These inscriptions help us understand the advent of Islam and its gradual diffusion in Bengal which eventually resulted in a Muslim majority region making the Bengali Muslims the second largest linguistic group in the Islamic world This book is an interpretive study of the Arabic and Persian epigraphic texts of Bengal in the wider context of a rich epigraphic tradition in the Islamic world While focusing on previously untapped sources it takes a fresh look into the Islamic inscriptions of Bengal and examines the inner dynamics of the social intellectual and religious transformations of this eastern region of South Asia It explores many new inscriptions including Persian epigraphs that appeared immediately after the Muslim conquest of Bengal indicating an early introduction of Persian language in the region through a cultural interaction with Khurasan and Central Asia In addition to deciphering and editing the epigraphic texts the information derived from them has been analyzed to construct the political administrative social religious and cultural scenario of the period The first survey of the Muslim inscriptions in India ever to be attempted on this scale the book reveals the significance of epigraphy as a source for Islamic history and culture As such it will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian Studies Asian History and Islamic Studies The Arab World Halim Barakat, 1993-10-14 This wide ranging examination of Arab society and culture offers a unique opportunity to know the Arab world from an Arab point of view Halim Barakat an expatriate Syrian who is both scholar and novelist emphasizes the dynamic changes and diverse patterns that have characterized the Middle East since the mid nineteenth century The Arab world is not one shaped by Islam nor one simply explained by reference to the sectarian conflicts of a mosaic society Instead Barakat reveals a society that is highly complex with many and various contending polarities It is a society in a state of becoming and change one whose social contradictions are at the root of the struggle to transcend dehumanizing conditions Arguing from a perspective that is both radical and critical Barakat is committed to the improvement of human conditions in the Arab world The New Cultural Atlas of the Islamic World Marshall Cavendish Corporation, 2010 Examine the ancient Islamic world through expertly designed maps and site drawings bringing history to life Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen, Oleg Grabar, Professor Emeritus of Islamic Art and Architecture Oleg Grabar, Marilyn Jenkins, 2003-07-11 This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar's original text this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain North Africa Egypt Syria Anatolia Iraq and Yemen as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration the art of the object and the art of the book With many new illustrations often in color this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world

Arabic Script in Motion M. Javad Khajavi, 2019-04-12 This book is a pioneering study of temporal typography and time based calligraphic art written in the Arabic system of writing Inspired by the innate qualities of Arabic script as well as certain practices in Islamic calligraphy and contemporary calligraphic art the book devises five broad categories of temporal behaviors for Arabic characters in time based media It goes on to expand the vocabulary used to describe Arabic script's appearance in time based media and proposes a theory to help artists practitioners and theoreticians push the boundaries of temporal text based art Furthermore it tackles questions of legibility and readability and seeks to understand how temporality of Arabic text influences the creation of meaning This book will therefore appeal not only to animators designers and artists but also to commentators and scholars who deal with temporal text based art written in Arabic script

Art Without Borders Ben-Ami Scharfstein, 2009-08-01 People all over the world make art and take pleasure in it and they have done so for millennia But acknowledging that art is a universal part of human experience leads us to some big questions Why does it exist Why do we enjoy it And how do the world's different art traditions relate to art and to each other Art Without Borders is an extraordinary exploration of those questions a profound and personal meditation on the human hunger for art and a dazzling synthesis of the whole range of inquiry into its significance Esteemed thinker Ben Ami Scharfstein's encyclopedic erudition is here brought to bear on the full breadth of the world of art He draws on neuroscience and psychology to understand the way we both perceive and conceive of art including its resistance to verbal exposition Through examples of work by Indian Chinese European African and Australian artists Art Without Borders probes the distinction between accepting a tradition and defying it through innovation which leads to a consideration of the notion of artistic genius

Continuing in this comparative vein Scharfstein examines the mutual influence of European and non European artists Then through a comprehensive evaluation of the world s major art cultures he shows how all of these individual traditions are gradually but haltingly conjoining into a single current of universal art Finally he concludes by looking at the ways empathy and intuition can allow members of one culture to appreciate the art of another Lucid learned and incomparably rich in thought and detail Art Without Borders is a monumental accomplishment on par with the artistic achievements Scharfstein writes about so lovingly in its pages
