subjects while exploring the limits and openness of the contemporary as a shifting and never wholly knowable category The five ensuing sections explore a history of the period s poetic movements its engagement with form technique and the other arts its association with particular locations and places its connection with and difference from poetry in other parts of the world and its circling around such ethical issues as whether poetry can perform actions in the world can atone redress or repair and how its significance is inseparable from acts of evaluation in both poets and readers Though the book is not structured to feature chapters on authors thought to be canonical on the principle that contemporary writers are by definition not yet canonical the volume contains commentary on many prominent poets as well as finding space for its contributors enthusiasms for numerous less familiar figures It has been organized to be read from cover to cover as an ever deepening exploration of a complex field to be read in one or more of its five thematically structured sections or indeed to be read by picking out single chapters or discussions of poets that particularly interest its individual readers Critical

Essays on World Literature, Comparative Literature and the "Other" Jüri Talvet, 2019-09-18 The book offers coherent theoretical treatment of the conceptions of World Literature and Comparative Literature in parallel with their practical application to the research of different literary phenomena Renaissance and Baroque creativity literary canons philosophy of translation etc especially as viewed from the point of view of the other peripheral minor minority national linguistic cultures Envisaging womankind s historical liberation and a budding comparative world sensibility has been seen as one of the greatest merits of European creative humanists To explain the deep sources of creativity and image authenticity the notions of the aesthetic infra other and philosophical transgeniality have been introduced The proposed aim would be to transcend monologues of ideological cultural centres as well as formalistic and sociological trends in cultural and literary research and teaching The book advocates a plurality of creative dialogues and a mutually enriching symbiotic relationship between centres and peripheries The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 SHERIDAN LE FANU -
