

Invictus

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.
In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.
Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.
It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate:
I am the captain of my soul.

The Brain and the Spirit Gena St. David, 2021-10-29 The Brain and the Spirit invites readers to embark on a practice of listening to the Christ story through the earpiece of neuroscience After many years steeped in brain science the author had an unexpected encounter with a theologian James Alison whose trust in God and forgiveness toward others appeared to defy neurobiological explanation How did his encounter with the Christ story produce in him the Christlike responses that it did This question launched the author on a thrilling quest to listen to the scriptures and take up questions of creation humanity sin Jesus salvation the Spirit and the body of Christ to hear what might get amplified by our ever expanding understanding of the human brain Readers are invited to eavesdrop on the twists and turns of the author's story and take up their own practice of listening to the Spirit scripture and theology through the earpiece of neuroscience and to become curious how the Christ story may spark trust which unlocks our brain's capacity to engage reality with relationality kindness creativity and access to joy Spoken Word by Cindy Cindy Calderon, 2017-05-02 No available information at this time Author will provide once available

The Weak Church Peter Ahn, 2025-09-04 Within the heart of the modern church a quiet crisis brews the steady decline in church attendance a trend acutely visible among the Gen Z cohort who holds a deep seated yearning for authentic connection and an aspiration to thrive within a transparent community Enter the world of The Weak Church a groundbreaking narrative that shuns the conventional pursuit of mega sized congregations and toxic masculinity inviting instead a resurgence of vibrant genuine communities through a ministry philosophy of weakness The essence of this book reaches far beyond the realm of numerical growth It is grounded by a singular objective to unravel the threads connecting our culture's obsession with strength while arming church leaders with a radical philosophy of weakness This philosophy holds the profound potential to redefine every facet of the church As the pages unfold you'll encounter the resounding proclamation My grace is sufficient for you for my power is made perfect in weakness 2 Corinthians 12 9 echoing through the corridors of transformation Discover Your True Strength Lindsay Roberts, 2024-05-07 Life has a way of weakening us but we can exchange life's strength stealers for strength builders by discovering how strong women in Christ think and act listen and speak respond and thrive as they fulfill their God given purposes Speech and Theology James K.A. Smith, 2005-06-29 God is infinite but language finite thus speech would seem to condemn Him to finitude In speaking of God would the theologian violate divine transcendence by reducing God to immanence or choose rather to remain silent At stake in this argument is a core problem of the conditions of divine revelation How in terms of language and the limitations of human understanding can transcendence ever be made known Does its very appearance not undermine its transcendence its condition of unknowability Speech and Theology posits that the paradigm for the encounter between the material and the divine or the immanent and transcendent is found in the Incarnation God's voluntary self immersion in the human world as an expression of His love for His creation By this key act of grace hinged upon Christ's condescension to human finitude philosophy acquires the means not simply to speak of perfection which is to speak theologically but to bridge the gap between word and thing in general sense
