Women's Imprisonment Pat Carlen, 2021-10-01 First published in 1983 Women's Imprisonment explores the meanings of women's imprisonment and in particular the wider meanings of the moment of prison Based on officially sponsored research in Cornton Vale Scotland's only women's prison the book makes extensive use of interviews with sheriffs policemen and social workers as well as observation in the prisons the courts and the lodging houses The author quotes from interviews with women recidivist prisoners the judges who send them to prison and the agencies which assist them in between their periods of imprisonment In doing so questions are raised about the meanings of imprisonment and the penal disciplining of women at the time of original publication The book also examines the changing and various meanings of imprisonment in general and the invisible nature of the social control of women in particular

Women Making Art Marsha Meskimmon, 2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Gendered Subjects (RLE Feminist Theory) Catherine Portuges, Margo Culley, 2013-05-20 The phrase feminist pedagogy couples the contemporary and the traditional joining current political movements with a concern for the transmission of knowledge more ancient than the Greek word for teaching Now two decades after the first Women's Studies courses appeared on campuses their place in higher education happily needs little demonstration Gendered Subjects combines a number of classic statements on feminist pedagogy from the 1970s with recent original essays making significant and original contributions to the field As the new scholarship on women has changed the content and structure of knowledge in every field so this collection aims to mirror this impact on feminist pedagogy with articles ranging from broad theoretical perspectives on the realities of the classroom to international explorations on how race gender and class and political orientation inform feminist enquiry

Food and Femininity in Twentieth-century British Women's Fiction Andrea Adolph, 2009 Examining female characters in Barbara Pym Angela Carter Helen Dunmore Helen Fielding and Rachel Cusk Andrea Adolph focuses on how women's relationships to food are used to locate women's embodiment within the everyday and reveal the writers resistance to the traditional mind body duality Periodicals housekeeping and cooking manuals and other cultural artifacts inform Adolph's study of how women's social and cultural roles are intricately connected to issues of food and food consumption
