D. John Morris Fenley, 2003-10 My caregiver training started early in life extended through the 44 years after Eileen was diagnosed as having multiple sclerosis and did not end until her death in 2001 At home I provided full care to her planned and thought ahead but always was willing to sacrifice my personal freedom and to suffer frequent heartbreak As a caregiver I received a lifetime of gratitude from Eileen to give me satisfaction of having successfully met her daily MS demands The early training I received in childhood coincided with the years of the Great Depression from the late 1920 s through the 1930 s and the first years of the 1940 s During that time I had the least possible financial assistance from anybody yet I became an unpaid electrician plumber carpenter auto repairer a Mr Fixit for the entire Fenley family The four years I served in the US Army were very pleasant advancing from private to major in an endless procession of challenging but interesting extra duties in addition to my regular ones These I describe as my lucky Army breaks I have bared my soul Happy reading Multiple Sclerosis June Halper, Nancy Holland, 2005-06-01 Education about multiple sclerosis has traditionally been medically oriented and related to disease and dysfunction In contrast this brand new second edition of the Guide continues to focus on staying well in the presence of MS a disease that while incurable can be managed The book covers a broad spectrum of topics related to MS and its effects focusing especially on the needs of those who have been living with the disease for some time Practical tips on self care are designed to promote maximum independence well being and productivity The theme of the book wellness can be described by the acronym Weighing options Eating well Living to your fullest Learning new skills

Needing others Evaluating situations realistically Surviving stress and Staying responsible Contributors to the book are professionals who have a specialty or a special interest in MS Their suggestions advice and strategies come from years of experience in the field It is their hope that readers will come away with fresh ideas on how to cope with the ever changing challenges of MS
