Dalton, 1998-08-24 The selection development support framework described in this report not only identifies the important factors to consider when working overseas but also specifies ways to develop a talent pool of effective expatriates

Mate Choice Gil G. Rosenthal, 2017-07-18 A major new look at the evolution of mating decisions in organisms from protozoans to humans The popular consensus on mate choice has long been that females select mates likely to pass good genes to offspring In Mate Choice Gil Rosenthal overturns much of this conventional wisdom Providing the first synthesis of the topic in more than three decades and drawing from a wide range of fields including animal behavior evolutionary biology social psychology neuroscience and economics Rosenthal argues that good genes play a relatively minor role in shaping mate choice decisions and demonstrates how mate choice is influenced by genetic factors environmental effects and social interactions Looking at diverse organisms from protozoans to humans Rosenthal explores how factors beyond the hunt for good genes combine to produce an endless array of preferences among species and individuals He explains how mating decisions originate from structural constraints on perception and from nonsexual functions and how single organisms benefit or lose from their choices Both the origin of species and their fusion through hybridization are strongly influenced by direct selection on preferences in sexual and nonsexual contexts Rosenthal broadens

the traditional scope of mate choice research to encompass not just animal behavior and behavioral ecology but also neurobiology the social sciences and other areas Focusing on mate choice mechanisms rather than the traits they target Mate Choice offers a groundbreaking perspective on the proximate and ultimate forces determining the evolutionary fate of species and populations Mate Selection in China Sampson Lee Blair,Timothy J. Madigan,Fang Fang,2022-04-21 This book examines the changing nature of dating and mate selection in contemporary China and addresses a wide array of both causes and consequences concerning mate selection including economic change traditional cultural norms evolving gender roles and both marriage and fertility aspirations Taxing Energy Use 2015 OECD and Selected Partner Economies OECD,2015-06-25 This report provides a systematic analysis of the structure and level of energy taxes in OECD and selected other countries together they cover 80% of global energy use The Pinyon Jay John M. Marzluff,Russel P. Balda,2010-10-30 A flock of Pinyon Jays arrive in a flash of blue and leave again just as suddenly This once mysterious bird is now the subject of over 20 years of intensive research involving over one thousand colour marked jays by Russell Balda John Marzluff and their colleagues and helpers This plain blue bird has turned out to be anything but plain in its biology and behaviour Uniquely dependent on the seeds of the Pinyon Pine for food they have developed a number of behavioural and morphological adaptations to best utilise this resource above all caching enough seeds each autumn to supply their needs throughout the winter and fuel their unusual habit of nesting in late winter Fluctuations in pine seed supply both by season and between years poses special problems for these birds and has led to their extremely flexible and complex social system in which learning and memory play an unusually large part They store pine seeds and retrieve them with uncanny accuracy they form lifelong pair bonds and nest colonially occasionally involving younger birds to help established pairs rear the young and they use their large vocabulary to coordinate activities within one of the largest known avian societies This intriguing story will fascinate both the enthusiastic amateur birder and the professional alike Packed with information it presents Pinyon Jay biology in a readable form and places them into the wider context of studies on bird ecology and evolution Fine illustrations by Tony Angell with additional pictures by Caroline Bauder complete this attractive addition to any birder s bookshelf Mate Choice Paul Patrick Gordon Bateson,1983-04-28 Twenty one specially commissioned articles provide a clear picture of the current state of thinking about mate choice Brings together modern thinking on the various functions of mate choice and its role in evolution Success Tips to Find & Live with the Right Marriage Partner for Every Total Youth Revd. Canon Joseph Ofoegbu,2012-10 Making choices of who to marry and how to identify and live with the right partner among matured youths today is a great task for many to embark on To proof if God permits one to marry a particular person is a strong confusion and decision to make The youths today want step by step details guidelines of all the dos and don ts of courtship and relationships This is a book that comprehensively help one to make an informed choice for discovering the right life partner in today s increasingly complex world This book provides the necessary physical and spiritual tools and how to use them to make a better relationship and dating choices It contains advanced tools concepts and strategies made available to lay a good and solid foundation for a better and future marriage relationship without confusion and regret The book gives answers to questions young men do ask at particular times in their lives as when do I marry who do I marry where do I marry from how do I know if he or she is Gods will for my life Also it deals with life discovery questions to help in finding out what to do and not to do to avoid regrettable mistakes in married life and maintain a loving marital relationship
