May,2014-11-03 Brian T May argues that contrary to widely held assumptions of postcolonial literary criticism a distinctive subset of postcolonial novels significantly values and scrupulously explores a healthy individuality These extravagant postcolonial works focus less on collective social reality than on the intimate subjectivity of their characters Their authors most of whom received some portion of a canonical western education do not subordinate the ambitions of their fiction to explicit political causes so much as create a cosmopolitan rhetorical focus suitable to their western educated western trained audiences May pursues this argument by scrutinizing novels composed during the thirty year postindependence postcolonial era of Anglophone fiction a period that began with the Nigerian Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart and that ended many would say with the Ayatollah Khomeini s 1989 publication of the Rushdie Fatwa May contends that the postcolonial authors under consideration Naipaul Rushdie Achebe Rhys Gordimer and Coetzee inherited modernism and refashioned it His account of their work demonstrates how it reflects and transfigures modernists such as Conrad Eliot Yeats Proust Joyce and Beckett Tracing the influence of humanistic values and charting the ethical and aesthetic significance of individualism May demonstrates that these works of extravagant postcolonialism represent less a departure from than a continuation and

evolution of modernism THE ZEAL OF FEARLESS LIVING Komal Thukral,2022-06-01 In this book writers talk about their biggest fears how they came to know about them at what phase of their lives and how they overcame them This book is a roller coaster life of writers who share their experiences and incidents in real life with the world and talk about them fearlessly The authors of this anthology are poets writers and authors from India Commendable efforts and co operation have made it possible This book contains various articles quotes sayings and poetry written by several budding writers The main reason behind the publication of this book is to create love and awareness towards literature in our new generation and to provide a platform for all the emerging writers to showcase their talent Life Now Jansher,2024-07-30 The capability of today s man has become so narrow that it is painful to imagine Today s human life is reduced to working eating sleeping and reproducing First they placed today s man in a certain place then gave him the wrong values National values patriotism ideological values They caught him at a certain point They closed all avenues for him They took away his chances Today s man knows nothing about life He sees nothing of creation Today s man never knows how far the beauty of nature and divine creation is spread He knows nothing Because his whole life is spent fighting over things that are all lies and illusions his life is wasted fighting and struggling with his comrades He never gets anywhere That is why he is in agony Then few people take advantage of the facilities and the nations beat each other over the head they are busy enjoying life and creation The sole mission of humanity today is to provide land for certain groups to live on Human slavery today has become so brilliant that it has almost assumed the color of sanctity and godliness In the name of knowledge and education he learns the art of slavery in the first half of his life and in the second half he does his slavery They call it alive
