The Killing Of The Countryside Graham Harvey, 2011-09-30 Over then past fifty years the British countryside has changed out of all recognition A wide range of wildlife species are disappearing victims of modern intensive farming of pesticides and fertilisers and the sheer relentless pressure to maximise output from every hedge bank and field corner It need not have happened The loss of our wildlife and countryside has come about through a deliberate and sustained national policy one that costs the British people 8 billion a year The Killing of the Countryside is a devastating attack on modern British agricultural policy and practice and a plea for a return to natural cycles an end to subsidies and the domination of agribusiness and for a safe sustainable farming system Winner of the 1997 BP Natural World Book Award

Lives of Game Animals: Bears, coons, badgers, skunks, and weasels. 2 pts Ernest Thompson Seton, 1926

Animal Harm Angus Nurse, 2016-04-15 Why do people harm injure torture and kill animals This book evaluates the reasons why these crimes are committed and outlines the characteristics of the animal offender It considers ethical and value judgements made about animals and the tacit acknowledgement and justification of unacceptable criminal behaviour towards the harming of animals made by offenders

Situating animal abuse wildlife crime illegal wildlife trading and other unlawful activities directed at animals firmly within Green Criminology the book contends that this is a distinct multi dimensional type of criminality which persists despite the introduction of relevant legislation Taking a broad approach the book considers the killing and harming of animals in an international context and examines the effectiveness of current legislation policy and sentencing Including a section on further reading and useful organizations this book is a valuable exploration into perspectives on the responsibility owed by man to animals as part of broader ecological and legal concerns It will interest criminologists ecologists animal protectionists and those interested in law and society and law and the environment Bears, coons, badgers, skunks, and weasels. 2 pts
