Through analysis of a variety of international novels short stories and films all published roughly between 1890 and 1945 the contributors to this collection demonstrate that the so called inward turn of modernist narratives in fact reflects the necessary interaction between mind self and world that constitutes knowledge and therefore precludes any radical split between these categories The essays examine the cognitive value of modernist narrative showing how the perception of objects and of other people is a relational activity that requires an awareness of the constant flux of reality The Fictional Minds of Modernism explores how modernist narratives offer insights into the real historical world not as a mere object of contemplation but as an object of knowledge thus bridging the gap between classical narratology and modernist experimentation

Tokyoids Francois Blanciak,2022-09-13 A photographic survey of the robotic face of Tokyo buildings and an argument that robot aesthetics plays a central role in architectural history In Tokyoids architect Fran ois Blanciak surveys the robotic faces omnipresent in Tokyo buildings offering an architectural taxonomy based not on the usual variables size material historical style but on the observable expressions of buildings Are the eyes windows twinkling the mouth door laughing Is that balcony a howl of distress Investigating robot aesthetics through his photographs of fifty buildings Blanciak argues that the robot face originated in architecture before the birth of robotics and has played a central role in architectural history Blanciak first puts the robot face into historical perspective examining the importance of the face in architectural theory and demonstrating that the construction of architecture's emblematic portraits triggered the emergence of a robot aesthetics. He then explores the emotions conveyed by the photographed buildings' robot faces in chapters titled Awe, Wrath, Mirth, Pain, Angst, and Hunger. As he does so, he considers among other things the architectural relevance of Tokyo's ordinary buildings, the repression of the figural in contemporary architecture, an aesthetic of dismemberment linked to the structure of the Japanese language and local building design, and the influence of automation technology upon human interaction. Part photographic survey, part theoretical inquiry, Tokyoids upends the usual approach to robotics in architecture by considering not the automation of architectural output but the aesthetic properties of the robot.

NATIONAL BESTSELLER PEN FAULKNER AWARD WINNER The acclaimed author of The Swimmers and When the Emperor Was Divine tells the story of a group of young women brought from Japan to San Francisco as picture brides a century ago in this understated masterpiece that unfolds with great emotional power. San Francisco Chronicle In eight unforgettable sections The Buddha in the Attic traces the extraordinary lives of these women from their arduous journeys by boat to their arrival in San Francisco and their tremulous first nights as new wives from their experiences raising children who would later reject their culture and language to the deracinating arrival of war. Julie Otsuka has written a spellbinding novel about identity and loyalty and what it means to be an American in uncertain times.

Émigré Cultures in Design and Architecture Alison J. Clarke, Elana Shapira, 2017-11-02 This new volume addresses the lasting contribution made by Central European migré designers to twentieth-century American design and architecture. The contributors examine how oppositional stances in debates concerning consumption and modernism's social agendas taken by designers such as Felix Augenfeld, Joseph Binder, Josef Frank, Paul T. Frankl, Frederick Kiesler, Richard Neutra, and R. M. Schindler in Europe prefigured their later adoption or rejection by American culture. They argue that migrés and refugees from fascist Europe such as György Kepes, Paul László, Victor Papanek, Bernard Rudofsky, Xanti Schawinsky, and Eva Zeisel drew on the particular experiences of their home countries and networks of migré and exiled designers in the United States to develop a humanist, progressive, and socially inclusive design culture which continues to influence design practice today.

The Spaces of the Modern City Gyan Prakash, Kevin M. Kruse, 2021-06-08 By United Nations estimates, 60 percent of the world's population will be urban by 2030. With the increasing speed of urbanization, especially in the developing world, scholars are now rethinking standard concepts and histories of modern cities. The Spaces of the Modern City historicizes the contemporary discussion of urbanism, highlighting the local and global breadth of the city landscape. This interdisciplinary collection examines how the city develops in the interactions of space and imagination. The essays focus on issues such as street design in Vienna, the motion picture industry in Los Angeles, architecture in Marseilles and Algiers, and the kaleidoscopic paradox of post-apartheid Johannesburg. They explore the nature of spatial politics, examining the disparate worlds of eighteenth-century Baghdad, nineteenth-century Morelia, Cold War-era West Berlin, and postwar Los Angeles. They also show the meaning of everyday spaces to urban life illuminating issues such as crime in metropolitan London youth culture in Dakar memory projects in Tokyo and Bombay cinema Informed by a range of theoretical writings this collection offers a fresh and truly global perspective on the nature of the modern city The contributors are Sheila Crane Belinda Davis Mamadou Diouf Philip J Ethington David Frisby Christina M Jim nez Dina Rizk Khoury Ranjani Mazumdar Frank Mort Martin Murray Jordan Sand and Sarah Schrank
