Wolfe,1997 Folk Songs of Middle Tennessee is superior to most collections because Boswell cast a wide net in his collecting recording many items from people not usually thought of as folksingers and because

unlike most collectors of his day he was equally skilled at music and lyric transcription W K McNeil The Ozark Folk Center This volume brings together for the first time more than one hundred traditional songs from Middle Tennessee a region that is synonymous in the popular mind with music but one that has been curiously neglected in folksong scholarship The songs presented here were originally collected in the late 1940s and early 1950s by George Boswell a distinguished scholar and field researcher who died in 1995 While living in Nashville Boswell scoured the city and surrounding counties for old ballads and folk songs Sometimes using a wire or tape recorder at other times employing a stenographer he visited numerous singers and transcribed the words and tunes to hundreds of songs Even after moving from Tennessee to assume a teaching position at the University of Mississippi Boswell continued to work on his collection annotating and comparing texts and publishing occasional samples In 1950 he noted that Tennessee virtually alone among southern states had no published collection of its folk songs That has remained the case until now The songs chosen for this book are presented with musical notation and extensive background notes including biographical data on the original informants many of whom were business and professional people and fascinating histories of each song A number of the songs are rare and previously uncollected others are local variants of long popular ballads The publication of this volume the first major collection of southern folk songs in many years is not only a testament to Boswell's scholarship but a marvelous contribution to our understanding of southern folk culture and The King's Singers' Folk Songs Kings Singers, 1995 King's Singers Choral The King Singers have a following the world over for their outstanding performance of both traditional and popular songs This volume brings together a top selection of British folk songs from their repertoire in brilliant mixed voice arrangements commissioned by them from leading arrangers Perennial hits for the King Singers both in concert and on disc they will bring equal enjoyment and success to vocal groups worldwide Available SATB divisi a cappella The Novello Shakespeare Choral Collection Novello & Co Ltd., 2015-09-07 Music played an enormous role in the works of William Shakespeare while his own sonnets poems and soliloquies have provided continuing inspiration for many composers through the years The Novello Shakespeare Choral Collection inspired by the 400th anniversary of the Bard's death in 2016 is an exciting anthology of 26 choral works that are settings of Shakespeare's words For choirs of all types and abilities this collection has been edited by David Wordsworth so that all the pieces are fantastic both to sing and hear The collection features some beautiful settings that have well and truly stood the test of time such as Thomas Arne's Blow Blow Thou Winter Wind more recent settings from contemporary composers such as John Tavener's Fear No More as well as several specially commissioned works including John Joubert's Be Not Afraid Richard Sisson's Light Thickens and Pawel Lukaszewski's Weary With Toil Some of these pieces have never appeared before in print such as those by Kevin Olson Bernard Hughes and John Gardner These songs truly are a joy to perform with some relatively simple arrangements that are purely fun to sing alongside more complex settings that will prove thoroughly rewarding for choirs and audiences alike There are a wealth of options for choirs looking to expand their
