case of establishing conditions in school that promote bilingualism and presents the principles of second language learning in early childhood in a clear step by step approach to provide practical help for this who work with young children in school By following the suggested activities the skills needed for helping children become competent in the use of English are developed

Child Language Development in Singapore and Malaysia Anna Kwan-Terry,1991 In recent years there has been increasing interest in the English used in Singapore and Malaysia including how children in these two countries acquire the languages used around them particularly on their acquisition of English This book is the first attempt to bring together studies on various aspects of this subject done by academics from the two countries It begins with two background papers on the linguistic situation in Singapore and Malaysia followed by studies of the cognitive development of children as it relates to language development The third and fourth sections of the book contain papers dealing variously with the sociolinguistic and psycholinguistic aspects of language use with important implications on language learning and teaching in a multilingual context

Social Worlds of Children Learning to Write in an Urban Primary School Anne Haas Dyson,1993 Dyson supports efforts to make literacy curricula accessible to our schools socioculturally diverse population This two year ethnographic study of K 3 children focuses on six students who would normally be deemed at risk and who do not tell stories in the written language format valued by most early literacy educators Their literacy learning particularly their writing development is portrayed as a social process in a complex social world Dyson s key theme is the link between composing a text and composing a place in this social world Dyson reconceptualizes classrooms as places for dynamic combinations of critical thinking humor growth and understanding for children and their teachers Harvard Educational Review

Organising Learning in the Primary School Classroom Joan Dean,2013-01-11 Since the publication of the first edition Organising Learning in the Primary School Classroom has been recognised as an indispensable guide for primary school teachers in their quest for more effective practice in the classroom It gives help on everyday problems of classroom organisation how to group children how to set out a classroom physically how to make the most efficient use of time and resources Now in its 4th edition the book retains these strengths but has been brought right up to date with the many changes that are taking place nationally and globally The book begins with a survey of these recent changes and goes on to consider their implications for teachers if today s schools are to prepare children for what is to some extent an unknown future In addition to chapters on classroom organisation the book includes chapters on child development creativity PSHE and citizenship teaching language and literacy ICT mathematics and science the foundation subjects working with parents working effectively with Teaching Assistants evaluating and assessing learning teaching children with special educational needs or exceptional ability Throughout the aim is to get teachers and student teachers to analyse their own classrooms and to produce solutions that will work for them This book will be invaluable not only to newly qualified teachers but also to experienced practitioners wishing to review their work

Language Learning and Intercultural Understanding in the Primary School Wendy Cobb, Virginia Bower, 2021-11-29 Language Learning and Intercultural Understanding in the Primary School shows how to deliver a progressive and holistic embedded language curriculum It provides guidance on inclusive approaches for students with English as an additional language including native speakers in the target language as well as language awareness activities that maximise links with learning in English Practical and accessible it contains classroom examples plans resources and pedagogical approaches all underpinned by theory research and practice Each chapter examines specific themes relating to language culture identity and wellbeing providing rich discussions and a range of perspectives Case studies bring to life the examples provided and reflection points offer the reader the opportunity to pause and consider an idea resource or challenging concept before moving on Presenting a lived narrative of shared voices the authors invite readers to learn about their own cultural and linguistic identities and how these relate to their practice This is a must read for teachers language specialists and school leaders who wish for a clear rationale for the role of language culture identity and wellbeing within and beyond the curriculum

The Role of Metaphor and Symbol in Motivating Primary School Children Elizabeth Ashton, 2022-12-30 This book provides a fresh approach to motivation in primary school children by exploring the role of metaphor and symbol in language and art as a means of expressing insights developed through learning The book investigates and transcends Piaget's dominant child developmental theories and considers alternative theories from psychiatry not least ideas drawn from the theories of Jung and the works of McGilchrist Using literary examples from primary school children's work including prose and poetry religious narratives and drama and art based on Jungian archetypal images the book analyses how creative approaches to lesson planning around metaphor and symbol enable children to achieve higher levels of understanding than had been previously thought possible Ultimately the volume evaluates why current practice largely fails to retain the initial enthusiasm shown for learning by young children and instead offers a wealth of possible new foundations and insights for learning among primary school children Focusing the primary school curriculum on creative ability this book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of educational psychology primary school education and educational theory

Teaching Modern Languages in the Primary School Patricia Driscoll, David Frost, 2005-06-23 It has been argued for some time that to improve language learning in Britain we need to start earlier as many other European countries do This book is addressed to policy makers and teachers who are considering the possibility of getting involved in the teaching of MFL in the primary school
