A Writing Life Bernadette Brennan, 2017-04-03 This is literary critique and biography at its finest Australian Financial Review Helen Garner is one of Australia's most important and most admired writers She is revered for her fearless honesty in the pursuit of her craft But Garner also courts controversy not least because she refuses to be constrained by the rules of literary form She has never been afraid to write herself into her nonfiction and many of her own experiences help to shape her fiction But who is the I in Helen Garner s work Bernadette Brennan s A Writing Life is the first full length study of Garner s forty years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Brennan has had access to previously unavailable papers in Garner s archive and she provides a lively and rigorous reading of the books journals and correspondence of one of Australia s most beloved women of letters Dr Bernadette Brennan is an academic and researcher in contemporary Australian writing literature and ethics She is the author of a number of publications including a monograph on Brian Castro and two edited collections Just Words Australian Authors Writing for Justice UQP 2008 and Ethical Investigations Essays on Australian Literature and Poetics Vagabond 2008 She lives in Sydney Garner has always been a boundary crosser Refusing the constrictions of literary genre she has sought to write across and craft her own versions of them She readily admits to a me character in all her work That character is a carefully constructed self In her fiction she unsettles her readers assumptions about protagonists by creating Helen characters most blatantly in Little Helen s Sunday Afternoon Habe Dank and The Spare Room In so doing she demonstrates the complexity of a constructed fictional self Billed as the first full length study of Garner s 40 years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Well who wouldn t want to read that Australian Bernadette Brennan s ingenious A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which gets around the subject s resistance to biography by viewing her life through her writing as Garner herself does Susan Wyndham Best Books of 2017 Australian Book Review Brennan s depiction of Garner s fearless approach to the very difficult subjects of The First Stone Joe Cinque s Consolation and This House of Grief is beautifully modulated and a real triumph She has captured and interpreted an important writer and her work beautifully Books Publishing Brennan has produced a literary portrait that more than does its subject justice It is not a biography Garner was quite clear that she didn t want that but because Garner is so often present in her own writing it s inevitable that her life is reflected in the discussion of her works This helps put her works in context and a picture emerges of an amazing writer Bernadette Brennan has done us all a great favour in delivering this immensely enjoyable book Mark Rubbo Readings Brennan is an astute and sensitive reader of Garner s work Big Issue The writing is clear measured and graceful throughout The readings of the fiction are astute and straightforward tracing Garner s development from the allegedly unstructured Monkey Grip which in fact offers a formal equivalent to the push me pull you vagaries of love and junk through the perfection of The Children s Bach and the experiments in voice and style in Postcards from Surfers to the late style bareness and hardness of The Spare Room Sydney Morning Herald This book offers an illuminating discussion of Garner s boundary crossing work Its own magic lies in bringing elements of memoir and criticism into an absorbing conversation that begins with a rich contextualisation of Garner s work and extends into the literary and ethical questions with which Brennan has long been concerned Australian Absorbing informative and engaging read Conversation Brennan examines both assumptions

by tracing Garner's steps to becoming a full time writer in a style that is both thoughtful and readable Australian Book Review Bernadette Brennan brings a calm eye and an easy grace to her descriptions of Garner's life literature and impact on Australia's cultural and socio political landscape She draws a more complex picture of one of our best known and most skilled writers than we've enjoyed in a full length volume before A Bigger Brighter World Probably my favourite book so far this year A marvellous tribute to one of Australia's great writers Mark Rubbo The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings Bernadette Brennan's first full length study of Helen Garner's work A Writing Life has inspired me to pile Garner's books on my bedside table and to look at each of them again with fresh eyes The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings A remarkably shrewd study of Garner's work knitted with a tender representation of her personal life Mascara Literary Review Brennan performs a kind of call for literature its criticism as well as creation Sydney Review of Books You might also include academic Bernadette Brennan's superb literary portrait of Garner A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which combines a close analysis of Garner's work with illuminating insights into her life Garner gave Brennan unprecedented access to her archives and spent long hours in conversation with her It shows Sydney Morning Herald Can't Put Down Titles for Summer A book for those who want to understand Garner's work more But it is also a book which makes clear the significant contribution Garner has made to Australian literature And in doing that it is itself a significant book Whispering Gums

Generation F Virginia Trioli, 2019-11-15 For me these Ormond College women were and are the first voices of the revolution that is MeToo in Australia Twenty five years ago Australia was in the grip of another debate about sex and power The Master of Ormond College at the University of Melbourne had been acquitted of indecent assault after complaints by two female students Helen Garner's bestselling book about the case The First Stone polarised readers over whether the students had been right to take their allegations to the law Was the feminist movement poisoning gender relations In Generation F the young award winning journalist Virginia Trioli offered a vigorous incisive and compelling argument for the ongoing need for feminism while exploring her own bewilderment and anger She described the real state of sexual harassment violence the workplace and the law in Australia how most women just copped it but those who felt able to confront it needed all the support they could get Now as women around the world speak up about how sexual harassment has destroyed their work families and lives Trioli revisits that cultural moment in a new foreword and in a new afterword considers the situation women face today Dismayingly her original text is just as relevant and her call to action just as powerful

Meanjin Vol 81, No 4 Meanjin Quarterly, 2022-12-01 Australia Where is the coverline for the December 2022 edition of Meanjin Jonathan Green's last as editor Various essays in this edition address elements of national character and direction Historian Mark McKenna's Australia in Four Referendums looks at the recent sweep of referendum history since the momentous 1967 vote In 1999 we effectively told our First Nations people that addressing the republic was more important more urgent and potentially more nation defining than their exclusion from the constitution It has taken twenty three years to see how wrong that decision was and how it reflected a deeply ingrained colonial mentality from which we are still struggling to emerge today Darumbal South Sea islander writer Amy McQuire writes on The Act of Disappearing We do not know how many Aboriginal women have gone missing in this country To understand the violence of silence and silencing we must first understand what has been silenced And to understand we must first listen to the families of women who have disappeared and most critically listen to Aboriginal women We must do so by remembering that the acts that have been perpetrated against them do not define them Waanyi writer Alexis Wright considers how her ancient culture has responded to ongoing destruction and how to bear witness to the creation of a post apocalyptic world Plus Guy Rundle on the Australian Labor Party s right turn Paul Daley on the enduring whiteness of our founding military mythology Scott Stephens on the choked breath of public discourse Mark Kenny on the possibility of a progressive patriotism Bruce Pascoe wonders when Australia can become herself Bernard Keane makes the case for governance Tim Hollo argues we won t know what happens next until we make it while Anne Spargo Ryan asks Will we fuck for pleasure in the apocalypse Other essays from Jo Chandler Shannon Burns Claire G Coleman Simon Copland Fatima Measham Sara Saleh Martin Langford and Peter Craven Memoir from Na ama Carlin Diana Blackwood and Mark E Dean New fiction from Kate Ryan SJ Finn Gregory Day Tina Huang and Penny Gibson New poetry by Jill Jones Eileen Chong Stella Theocharides Angela Gardner Judith Beveridge Max Lavergne Debbie Lim Rachael Mead Allis Hamilton and Paul Dawson Reviews by Maria Danuco Zowie Douglas Kinghorn May Ngo and Ellen O'Brien
