The Last Longhouse:

The Life of the Longhouse Peter Metcalf, 2010 The remarkable longhouses of Borneo remain mysterious This book describes life within them and puts them in their historical and ethnographic context Long House, Mesa Verde National Park, Colorado George S. Cattanach, Richard Page Wheeler, 1980

Land and Longhouse Rob A. Cramb, 2007 Land and Longhouse examines the role of community market and state in the historic transformation of upland livelihoods in Southeast Asia Focusing on the Saribas Iban of Sarawak the book combines in depth generation long village case studies with an account of changes in land use and tenure at the regional level spanning a century and a half This analysis demonstrates that far from being passive victims of globalization the Iban have been active agents in their own transformation engaging with both market and state while retaining community values and governance R A Cramb makes a significant new contribution to debates about economic social and environmental change and conflict in upland Southeast Asia His book offers a fascinating empirically rich account of interest to scholars development practitioners and the general reader alike This study is certain to become a major reference point for future work on land use tenure and agrarian change in Upland Southeast Asia Clifford Sather University of Helsinki Rob Cramb has written an excellent book with a much needed longitudinal perspective on agrarian change The book is an important contribution to the urgent need for understanding the dynamics and consequences both environmental and social of upland transformation in Southeast Asia Ole Mertz University of Copenhagen Rob Cramb s study raises provocative questions about Iban society the nature of the Southeast Asia uplands and agrarian history He presents a work distinguished by the depth of its scholarship and the breadth of the questions addressed by it Michael R Dove Yale University

Native American Architecture Peter Nabokov, Robert Easton, 1990-10-25 The collaboration between an architect and an anthropologist Native American Architecture presents the first book length fully illustrated exploration of North American Indian architecture to appear in over a century Peter Nabokov and Robert Easton together examine the building traditions of the major tribes in nine regional areas of the continent from the huge plank house villages of the Northwest Coast to the moundbuilder towns and temples of the Southeast to the Navajo hogans and adobe pueblos of the Southwest Going beyond a traditional survey of buildings the book offers a broad clear view into the Native American world revealing a new perspective on the interaction between their buildings and culture Looking at Native American architecture as more than buildings villages and camps Nabokov and Easton also focus on their use of space their environment their social mores and their religious beliefs

Inside Austronesian Houses James J. Fox, 2006-09-01 Dwellings Social life Customs Southeast Asia Oceania

The Iroquois Ceremonial of Midwinter Elisabeth Tooker, 2000-04-01 The Midwinter ceremonial the longest and most complex of the rituals of the Longhouse religion is examined here in three parts Following a short cultural history of the Iroquois and a description of the present geographical location of the various longhouses and tribes Elisabeth Tooker discusses the principles of Iroquois ritualism The second part of the book is devoted to detailed accounts of the Midwinter ceremonial as it is performed today at six Iroquois longhouses. The third part presents the historical perspective of the ceremony through excerpts from writings of Roman Catholic and Protestant missionaries, captives, travelers, local residents and anthropologists. Beyond Primitivism Jacob K. Olupona, 2004-02-24. At a time when local traditions across the world are forcibly colliding with global culture, Beyond Primitivism explores the future of indigenous religions as they encounter modernity and globalisation. Gudme Palle Østergaard Sørensen, 2022-09-15. Gudme The Iron Age Settlement and Central Halls presents, describes and interprets the many finds and structures that have been comprised during the extended excavations at the central parts of the Gudme locality on southeast Funen, Denmark. Head of excavation Palle Østergaard Sørensen extracts, combines, classifies dates and temporalizes the many finds and houses from the excavations: Gudmehallerne, Gudme III, Gudme IV. Since the 19th century, the Gudme area has been known as one of the richest prehistoric localities in Scandinavia, and more than 1 000 Roman coins, close to 600 fibulas, as well as several small masks and animal figurines, form part of the Gudme find assemblage. From AD 200 to AD 600, the site expanded rapidly and covered as much as one square kilometer, comprising up to 50 farmsteads. At the individual farms, specialized craftsmanship can be found, and the debris and tools of gold and silversmiths, as well as bronze casting, is abundant here. Bronze fragments, often from statues imported from the Roman Empire, form a distinct category of finds bearing witness to a flourishing and innovative world of craftsmanship, as well as an extensive trade network. During this period, the unique and monumental halls, with the largest being 47 m long and 10 m wide, dominated the hilltops east of Gudme lake. Just to the south, a smaller building accompanied the large hall and had been purposely demolished and rebuilt several times at the exact same spot. The unusually large entrances to the two adjoined buildings lead straight from one to the other, thus witnessing a duality of buildings that came to define the aristocratic localities throughout Scandinavia in the following 800 years. Hence, Gudme represents a starting point for a significant type of architectural ideal, as well as a first generation of central places. The Heart of the Pearl Shell James F. Weiner, 2023-11-15. For the Foi people who live on the edge of the central highlands of Papua New Guinea, the flow of pearl shells is the heart of their social life. The pearl shell is the exchange item that mediates the creation of their most important sexual and social roles. The Heart of the Pearl Shell analyzes a number of myths of the Foi people, elegantly bringing together significant ethnographic materials in a way that has important implications for the development of social theory in anthropology and in Melanesian studies. Scholars of semiotic, symbolic anthropology and of comparative religion will also share the author's interest in the meaning and role of mythology in Foi culture. Instead of relying on orthodox methods of Freudian or structuralist interpretation, James Weiner assumes there is a dialectical relationship between the images of Foi myth and the images of the Foi's social world. He demonstrates how each set of these images is dependent upon the other for its creation. This innovative study locates Foi social meaning in the re-creation and attempted solution of the moral dilemmas that are crystallized in mythology and other
