The Last New Wave The Australian Film Revival:

The Last New Wave David Stratton,1981-09-01 The Australian Film Revival Susan Barber,2023-01-26 The Australian Film Revival 70s 80s and Beyond explores the matrix of forces artistic cultural economic political governmental and ideological that gave rise to shaped and sustained this remarkable film movement This engaging new study brings fresh perspectives insights and innovative approaches to a variety of films from a diversity of filmmakers Areas of focus include the complex and contentious subjects of masculinity femininity and feminism the maternal as well as the Indigenous road film and the protean Australian gothic During the formative years of the revival Australian films seemed to emerge from out of the blue in terms of global film history with many features including Picnic at Hanging Rock 1975 Caddie 1976 The Last Wave 1977 The Chant of Jimmie Blacksmith 1978 and My Brilliant Career 1979 receiving international distribution and enthusiastic critical acclaim with strong box office results By the time the film revival was in full swing not only did Australian audiences flock to theaters to see homegrown films but the quantity of Australian films on overseas screens was so high that ardent critics declared this outpouring an Australian New Wave The eyes of the world had turned to a compelling and largely unknown culture

The Last New Wave David Stratton,1980 Looks at the growth of mass air tourism and the consequent increase in greenhouse gas emissions from aircraft The effects on cities such as Venice subject to frequent flooding and the climate of Europe and Africa could become much worse as new airline markets such as India and China continue to expand

Australian Gothic Jonathan Rayner, 2022-06 The book reads the Gothic characteristics of Australian cinema within their national cultural context The book relates the key motifs and concerns of Gothic literature to the styles narratives and significance of Australian films The book places examples of Australian Gothic film within the Australian filmmaking and film criticism and relates these to the wider trends of international horror film The Films of Peter Weir Ionathan Rayner, 2006-09-01 This fully revised and updated edition of Jonathan Rayner's acclaimed study takes an in depth look at the career of a filmmaker who has over the course of 30 years put together a substantial and much loved body of work in the Oceanic South Allison Craven, Diana Sandars, 2023-12-05 This dynamic multidisciplinary collection of essays examines the uncanny eerie wondrous and dreaded dimensions of oceans seas waterways and watery forms of the oceanic South a haunted global precinct stretching across the Pacific Southern and Indian Oceans and around Australasia Oceania Aotearoa New Zealand and South Africa Presenting work from leading scholars the chapters contend with the contemporary fears and repressions associated with the return of environmental traumas colonial traumas and the spectres of the precolonial deep past that resurface in the present The book examines the manifestations of these Gothic aesthetics and propensities across a range of watery spaces seas oceans waterholes and swamps in vessels ports shorelines journeys strandings and transformations in amphibious bodies and the drowned all of which promote haunted engagement with the materiality of water This collection renews the interdisciplinary breadth of Gothic criticism and the relevance of Gothic affect and sensibility to understanding the histories and cultures of the oceanic South through an exploration of the rarely considered uncanniness of the oceans waterways and aqueous forms of the Southern Hemisphere haunted by colonial and precolonial imaginings of the Antipodes the legacies of imperialism and the double vision between Oceanic and settler colonial epistemologies and the encroaching menace of climate change Comprising diverse contributions from screen literary and cultural studies environmental humanities human geography and creative practice in ecological sound art and poetry the collection examines the uncanny and the sublime in watery fictions and authentic settings of a range of aqueous southern forms ocean surfaces and depths haunted shallows and reefs moist mangroves moss and lichen the awesome horror of tidal apocalypse This book will be illuminating reading for students and scholars of cultural studies postcolonial studies area studies and Indigenous studies Hell-Bent for Leather Kerry Fine, 1965 A Cultural History of the Bushranger Legend in Theatres and Cinemas, 18282017 Andrew James Couzens, 2019-01-31 A Cultural History of the Bushranger Legend in Theatres and Cinemas 1828 2017 is a multidisciplinary investigation into the history of cultural representations of the bushranger legend on the stage and screen charting that history from its origins in colonial theatre works performed while bushrangers still roamed Australia s bush to contemporary Australian cinema It considers the influences of industrial political and social disruptions on these representations as well as their contributions to those disruptions The cultural history recounted in this book provides not only an insight into the role of popular narrative representations of bushrangers in the development and reflection of Australian character but also a detailed case study of the specific mechanisms at work in the symbiosis between a nation s values and its creative production Reel Men Chelsea Barnett, 2019-02-19 Set against the shifting social and political backdrop of a nation throwing off the shackles of one war yet faced with the instability of the new world order Reel Men probes the concept of 1950s masculinity itself asking what it meant to be an Australian man at this time Offering a compelling exploration of the Australian fifties the book challenges the common belief that the fifties was a dead era for Australian filmmaking Reel Men engages with fourteen Australian feature films made and released between 1949 and 1962 and examines the multiple masculinities in circulation at this time Dealing with beloved Australian films like Jedda 1955 Smiley 1956 and The Shiralee 1957 and national icons of the silver screen including Chips Rafferty Charles Bud Tingwell and Peter Finch Reel Men delves into our cultural past to dismantle powerful assumptions about film the fifties and masculinity in Australia Focus On: 50 Most Popular Buddy Films Wikipedia contributors, Film Criticism as a Cultural Institution Huw Walmsley-Evans, 2018-03-28 At the beginning of the 21st century film criticism was described as in crisis The decline of print journalism a series of lay offs of prominent critics and the rise of amateur reviewing online spurred a conversation about the decline even death of film criticism This discourse flourished in part because film criticism has been little examined in scholarship to date This book takes a deeper look at film criticism by focusing on its institutional contours This is achieved through a combination of archival research and interviews with prominent film critics and stakeholders including Adrian Martin LOLA Stephanie Zacharek Time Peter Bart Variety and Andrew Sarris The Village Voice Film Criticism as a Cultural Institution first examines the contemporary crisis conversation surrounding film criticism comparing this to historical precedents It then provides what today s crisis conversation does not an account of film criticism s institutional formations Using primarily U S and Australian case studies based on interviews observation and archival research as well as accounts from other national schools the book maps contemporary film criticism Across various sites such as publications or online spaces and organisations such as film critics circles it elucidates film criticism s institutional practices tasks comportments and personae Looking at the history of conversations about film criticism shows us that crisis has always been a leitmotif While acknowledging the considerable changes and challenges that film criticism faces today this book situates these within an historical context and proposes an institutional framework that allows us to move beyond crisis discourse Looking at film criticism in this way allows us to see that the very question of what counts as film criticism is continually contested within an institutional ecology made up of distinctive critical comportments addressed to distinctive audiences The Routledge Companion to World Cinema Rob Stone, Paul Cooke, Stephanie Dennison, Alex Marlow-Mann, 2017-09-27 The Routledge Companion to World Cinema explores and examines a global range of films and filmmakers their movements and audiences comparing their cultural technological and political dynamics identifying the impulses that constantly reshape the form and function of the cinemas of the world Each of the forty chapters provides a survey of a topic explaining why the issue or area is important and critically discussing the leading views in the area Designed as a dynamic forum for forty three world leading scholars this companion contains significant expertise and insight and is dedicated to challenging complacent views of hegemonic film cultures and replacing outmoded ideas about production distribution and reception It offers both a survey and an investigation into the condition and activity of contemporary filmmaking worldwide often challenging long standing categories and weighted often politically motivated value judgements thereby grounding and aligning the reader in an activity of remapping which is designed to prompt rethinking Beyond the Silver Screen Mary Tomsic, 2017-10-16 Beyond the Silver Screen tells the history of women's engagement with filmmaking and film culture in twentieth century Australia In doing so it explores an array of often hidden ways women in Australia have creatively worked with film Beyond the Silver Screen examines film in a broad sense considering feature filmmaking alongside government documentaries and political films It also focusses on women s work regulating films and supporting film culture through organising film societies and workshops to encourage female filmmakers As such it tells a new narrative of Australian film history Beyond the Silver Screen reveals the variety of roles film has in Australian society It presents film as a medium of creative and political expression which women have engaged with in diverse ways throughout the twentieth century Gender roles and gendered ideologies operating within society at large have influenced women s opportunities to work with film and how their filmwork is recognised Beyond the Silver Screen shows women s sustained involvement with film is best understood as political and cultural action National Fictions Graeme Turner, 2020-07-28 National Fictions is a study of Australian literature and film It is also a study of Australian culture viewing the novels and films as products of a specific culture as narratives with similar structures functions forms and meanings It covers a wide range of texts offering both close analysis and an account of their place within the system of meanings the book proposes as dominant in Australian culture The second edition of this influential work includes a new Afterword which traces recent changes in Australian literature and film examining the growth of women's writing and popular fiction as well as current trends in Australian cinema Turner asks whether these developments really mark a shift in the Australian narrative and whether it is still possible to speak in terms of a national culture a ground clearing book a seminal work setting an agenda for cultural studies beyond the stockyards and croquet lawns of literary criticism David Carter Australian Literary Studies As a global syncretist Turner is without peer Stuart Cunningham Media Information Australia The Routledge Companion to Folk Horror Robert Edgar, Wayne Johnson, 2023-10-09 The Routledge Companion to Folk Horror offers a comprehensive guide to this popular genre It explores its origins canonical texts and thinkers the crucial underlying themes of nostalgia and hauntology and identifies new trends in the field Divided into five parts the first focuses on the history of Folk Horror from medieval texts to the present day It considers the first wave of contemporary Folk Horror through the films of the unholy trinity as well as discussing the influence of ancient gods and early Folk Horror Part 2 looks at the spaces landscapes and cultural relics which form a central focus for Folk Horror In Part 3 the contributors examine the rich history of the use of folklore in children's fiction The next part discusses recent examples of Folk Horror infused music and image Chapters consider the relationship between different genres of music to Folk Horror such as folk music black metal and new wave sound and performance comic books and the Dark Web Often regarded as British in origin the final part analyses texts which break this link as the contributors reveal the larger realms of regional national international and transnational Folk Horror Featuring 40 contributions this authoritative collection brings together leading voices in the field It is an invaluable resource for students and scholars interested in this vibrant genre and its enduring influence on literature film music and culture

A Cultural History of the Bushranger Legend in Theatres and Cinemas, 1828–2017 Andrew James Couzens, 2019-01-31 A Cultural History of the Bushranger Legend in Theatres and Cinemas 1828 2017 is a multidisciplinary investigation into the history of cultural representations of the bushranger legend on the stage and screen charting that history from its origins in colonial theatre works performed while bushrangers still roamed Australia s bush to contemporary Australian cinema It considers the influences of industrial political and social disruptions on these representations as well as their contributions to those disruptions The cultural history recounted in this book provides not only an insight into the role of popular narrative representations of bushrangers in the development and reflection of Australian character but also a detailed case study of the specific mechanisms at work in the symbiosis between a nation s values and its creative production World Cinema W.
