The Last Picture Show Directors Cut:

Filmology Chris Barsanti, 2010-11-18 Sure everybody loves the movies But how much do these movie enthusiasts really know about them In this groundbreaking book noted film critic Chris Barsanti gives you the most entertaining crash course in good film in a book one movie a day This is not just another greatest movies celebration Pairing cinema s lesser seen gems alongside blockbusters great early works from the pioneers of film alongside often overlooked films from great directors Barsanti unveils the movies that all true cineastes must see for everyone s viewing pleasure Filmology So you can watch your way to an education in film     The Last Great American Picture Show Alexander Horwath, Thomas Elsaesser, Noel King, 2004 This publication is a major evaluation of the 1970s American cinema including cult film directors such as Bogdanovich Altman and Peckinpah     The Last Picture Show Douglas Fogle, 2003 Photography has become an increasingly pervasive medium of choice in contemporary art practice and is even employed at times by artists who do not necessarily consider themselves to be photographers How did this come to be The Last Picture Show will address the emergence of this phenomenon of artists using photography by tracing the development of conceptual trends in postwar photographic practice from its first glimmerings in the 60s in the work of artists such as Berndt portraiture and cultural identity the formal and social architectonics of the built environment societal and individual interventions in the landscape photography s relationship to sculpture and painting the visual mediation of meaning in popular culture and the poetic and conceptual investigation of visual non sequiturs disjunctions and humorous absurdities Bringing together a newly commissioned body of scholarship with reprints of important historical texts The Last Picture Show seeks to define the legacy that has produced a rich body of photographic practice in the art world today     Hollywood's Artists Virginia Wright Wexman, 2020-07-21 Today the director is considered the leading artistic force behind a film The production of a Hollywood movie requires the labor of many people from screenwriters and editors to cinematographers and boom operators but the director as author of the film overshadows them all How did this concept of the director become so deeply ingrained in our understanding of cinema In Hollywood's Artists Virginia Wright Wexman offers a groundbreaking history of how movie directors became cinematic auteurs that reveals and pinpoints the influence of the Directors Guild of America DGA Guided by Frank Capra s mantra one man one film the Guild has portrayed its director members as the creators responsible for turning Hollywood entertainment into cinematic art Wexman details how the DGA differentiated itself from other industry unions focusing on issues of status and creative control as opposed to bread and butter concerns like wages and working conditions She also traces the Guild s struggle for creative and legal power exploring subjects from the language of on screen credits to the House Un American Activities Committee s investigations of the movie industry Wexman emphasizes the gendered nature of images of the great director demonstrating how the DGA promoted the idea of the director as a masculine hero Drawing on a broad array of archival sources interviews and theoretical and sociological insight Hollywood's Artists sheds new light on the ways in which the Directors Guild of America has shaped the role and image of directors both within the Hollywood system and in the culture at large     Archive UCLA Film and Television Archive,1992     The Cinegram ,1992     American Literature on Stage and Screen Thomas S. Hischak,2014-01-10 The 525 notable works of 19th and 20th century American fiction in this reference book have many stage movie television and video adaptations Each literary work is described and then every adaptation is examined with a discussion of how accurate the version is and how well it succeeds in conveying the spirit of the original in a different medium In addition to famous novels and short stories by authors such as Nathaniel Hawthorne F Scott Fitzgerald and Willa Cather many bestsellers mysteries children s books young adult books horror novels science fiction detective stories and sensational potboilers from the past two centuries are examined     New York Magazine ,1996-07-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea     State of Minds Don Graham,2011-02-01 John Steinbeck once famously wrote that Texas is a state of mind For those who know it well however the Lone Star State is more than one mind set more than a collection of clich s more than a static stereotype There are minds in Texas Don Graham asserts and some of the most important are the writers and filmmakers whose words and images have helped define the state to the nation the world and the people of Texas themselves For many years Graham has been critiquing Texas writers and films in the pages of Texas Monthly and other publications In State of Minds he brings together and updates essays he published between 1999 and 2009 to paint a unique critical picture of Texas culture In a strong personal voice wry humorous and ironic Graham offers his take on Texas literary giants ranging from J Frank Dobie to Larry McMurtry and Cormac McCarthy and on films such as The Alamo The Last Picture Show and Brokeback Mountain He locates the works he discusses in relation to time and place showing how they sprang or not from the soil of Texas and thereby helped to define Texas culture for generations of readers and viewers including his own younger self growing up on a farm in Collin County Never shying from controversy and never dull Graham s essays in State of Minds demolish the notion that Texas culture is an oxymoron     Interrogating the Image Del Jacobs,2009-09-22 Interrogating the Image argues that movies examining the role film and television plays in the lives of their audience have created changes both in the movies themselves and in their viewers and considers fourteen films where the moving picture is central to the narratives Three films discussed The Purple Rose of Cairo Pleasantville and The Truman Show offer frame breaking experiences for their characters that allow spectators to appreciate the ruptures between lived reality and media play delivering therapeutic payoffs that can be restorative reconstructive or rejective Other examples come from the worlds of cinema The Majestic Matinee Cinema Paradiso television Bamboozled Network Natural Born Killers Medium Cool and the sociopolitical realm

Movie Stars Do the Dumbest Things Margaret Moser, Michael Bertin, Bill Crawford, 1999-10-29 Johnny Depp Marilyn Monroe Marlon Brando Leonardo DiCaprio Woody Allen Sharon Stone What do all of these actors have in common They're outrageous receive huge salaries have enormous egos and have way too much spare time Their out of control lifestyles prove that as one Hollywood observer noted Hollywood is a trip through a sewer in a glass bottomed boat You'll learn which director was furious when he was misquoted as saying Actors are cattle He claimed he had really said Actors should be treated as cattle You'll discover that Bruce Willis ordered the final scenes in Striking Distance to be re shot at a cost of over 750 000 because the original shots exposed his toupee You'll find that Melanie Griffith explained her ignorance of the Nazi holocaust by saying I don't know why

I didn't know Maybe I missed school that day I'm not stupid Whether you're a fan of Hugh Grant Dennis Hopper or Whoopi Goldberg you'll learn about all of the embarrassing moments in your favorite star's life From actors like Ben Affleck and Cameron Diaz to screen legends like Frank Sinatra and Judy Garland Movie Stars Do the Dumbest Things is proof that actors are more childish and impulsive than you've ever imagined

The Lost Decade Chris Horn, 2023-10-19 Provides an analysis of Hollywood from a fresh viewpoint that shows the careers of Robert Altman Francis Coppola William Friedkin and others in the 1980s as far from conforming to a monolithic pattern of decline but rather as diverse and complex responses to political and industrial changes The 1980s are routinely seen as the era of the blockbuster and of Reaganite entertainment whereas the dominant view of late 1960s and early 1970s American film history is that of a Hollywood Renaissance a relatively brief window of artistry based around a select group of directors Yet key directors associated with the Renaissance period remained active throughout the 1980s and their work has been obscured or dismissed by a narrow singular model of American film history This book deals with industrial contexts that conditioned these directors' ability to work creatively but it is also very much about the analysis of individual films bringing to light a range of unheralded work from the visual experimentation of One from the Heart Coppola 1981 to the experimental production contexts of Secret Honor Altman 1984 and the stylistic lean of To Live and Die in L.A. Friedkin 1985 Behind the homogenous picture of the decline of the auteur in 1980s American cinema are films and careers that merit greater attention and this book offers a new way to perceive individual films American film history and the viability of sustained authorial creativity within post studio era Hollywood

Peter Bogdanovich Peter Tonguetto, 2015-01-21 Before he was the Academy Award nominated director of The Last Picture Show Peter Bogdanovich 1939-2022 interviewed some of cinema's great masters Orson Welles Alfred Hitchcock John Ford and others After becoming an acclaimed filmmaker himself he gave countless interviews to the press about his own career This volume collects thirteen of his best most comprehensive and most insightful interviews many long out of print and several never before published in their entirety They cover more than forty years of directing with Bogdanovich talking candidly about his great triumphs such as The Last Picture Show and What's Up Doc and his overlooked gems such as Daisy Miller and They All Laughed Assembled by acclaimed critic Peter Tonguetto also author of a critical biography of Bogdanovich these interviews demonstrate that Bogdanovich was not only one of America's finest filmmakers but also one of its most eloquent when discussing film and his own remarkable movies
