The Last Stop Writing From Comstock Prison:

The Last Stop Joseph Bruchac, 1974 The Political Uses of Literature Benjamin Kohlmann, Ivana Perica, 2024-01-11

Drawing on a global history of politicized writing this book explores literature's utility as a mode of activism and aesthetic engagement with the political challenges of the current moment. The question of literature's uses has recently become a key topic of academic and public debate. Paradoxically however these conversations often tend to bypass the rich history of engagements with literature's distinctly political uses that form such a powerful current of 20th and 21st century artistic production and critical theoretical reflection. The Political Uses of Literature reopens discussion of literature's political and activist genealogies along several interrelated lines. As a foundational moment it draws attention to the important body of interwar politicized literature and to debates about literature's ability to intervene in social reality. It then traces the mobilization of related conversations and artistic practices across several historical conjunctures most notably the committed literature of the 1960s and our own present. In mapping out these geographically and artistically diverse traditions including case studies from the Americas Europe Africa India and Russia contributors advance critical discussions in the field making questions pertaining to politicized art newly compelling to a broader and more diverse readership. Most importantly this volume insists on the need to think about literature's political uses today at a time when it has become increasingly difficult to imagine any kind of political efficacy for art even as the need to do so is growing more and more acute. Literature may not proffer easy answers to our political problems but as this collection suggests the writing of the 20th century holds out aesthetic resources for a renewed engagement with the dilemmas that face us now.

When the Smoke Cleared Celes Tisdale, 2022-10-17 Following the Attica prison uprising in September 1971 Celes Tisdale a poet and then professor at Buffalo State College began leading poetry workshops with those incarcerated at Attica. Tisdale's workshop created a space of radical Black creativity and solidarity in which poets who lived through the uprising were able to turn their experiences into poetry. The poems written by Tisdale's students were published as Betcha Ain't Poems from Attica in 1974. When the Smoke Cleared contains the entirety of Betcha Ain't, Tisdale's own poems and journal entries from the three years he taught at Attica, a previously unpublished collection of poems by Attica poets and a critical introduction by poet Mark Nowak. In addition to the poetry Tisdale's journal entries give readers a unique opportunity to experience what it was like to enter Attica as an educator and return week after week to discuss poetry. When the Smoke Cleared showcases these poets' achievements, their desire for self-determination and their historical role as storytellers of Black life in a prison monitored exclusively by white guards and administrators.

Social Poetics Mark Nowak, 2020-03-10 Social Poetics documents the imaginative militancy and emergent solidarities of a new insurgent working class poetry community rising up across the globe. Part autobiography, part literary criticism, part Marxist theory, Social Poetics presents a people's history of the poetry workshop from the founding director of the Worker Writers School. Nowak illustrates not just what poetry means but what it does to and for people.

Transformations Stephen Chinlund,2009-09-30 Prison Transformation is the story of the changes in the New York State prison system from 1962 to 2009 Interwoven with that history is the biography of Stephen Chinlund who lived through those big developments as an active participant in various capacities In 1962 fourteen years before the Attica uprising there were only twenty two prisons in the state system Then there were seventy two now sixty six Discipline was maintained by force often capricious and brutal There was only minimal education and vocational training After growing up in New York City going to good schools and being ordained as an Episcopal priest Chinlund started working inside as a volunteer He created groups of people inside with the plan that they could help each other more effectively than he could help them by preaching or even counseling them directly himself The groups developed into small communities inside the prisons Chinlund also recognized the need to help the men and women after they were released and developed counseling and job training on the outside Parole at the time provided none of that With small steps the prison system was improving reflecting the growing consciousness of civil rights in the society at large School opportunities were offered and even college courses began to appear But the progress was slow and the discipline was still needlessly harsh Chinlund became a consultant to the Narcotic Addiction Control Commission helping new treatment facilities in the city get started using his experience helping individuals who were locked up He was then recruited in 1968 to be the director of the Manhattan Rehabilitation Center confining three hundred female heroin addicts Then the uprising in Attica occurred in 1971 That tragedy led to a few more improvements inmate grievance committees contact visits conjugal visits inmate liaison committees and some better schooling In addition the legislature created the Commission of Correction to be an independent monitor of the prisons Chinlund had had success at the Manhattan Rehabilitation Center so he moved on in 1973 to become superintendent of the first work release prison in New York State giving reality to an important policy improvement Governor Hugh Carey then asked him to become chairman of the Commission of Correction where he was able to confirm the improvements that were being made As important he was able in 1979 to start the Network program a more formal and extensive implementation of the old groups inside Funded with federal money initially it grew to be a force for good in twenty six prisons at its maximum size Declining Careys request to serve another term Chinlund moved on to a parish and then to be the executive director of the Episcopal Social Services

where he has continued the Network program and continued to advocate for progress in the correctional world He continues that work after his retirement in 2005 The book tells the stories of the prisoners staff and politicians of those forty eight years The Outlook Lyman Abbott,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Ernest Hamlin Abbott,Francis Rufus Bellamy,1913
