The Last White Class Marge Piercy, Ira Wood, 1980      Contemporary American Women Writers Catherine Rainwater, William J. Scheick, 2021-05-11 Ann Beattie Annie Dillard Maxine Hong Kingston Toni Morrison Cynthia Ozick Grace Paley Marge Piercy Anne Redmon Anne Tyler and Alice Walker all seem to be especially concerned with narrative management The ten essays in this book raise new and intriguing questions about the ways these leading women writers appropriate and transform generic norms and ultimately revise literary tradition to make it more inclusive of female experience vision and expression The contributors to this volume discover diverse narrative strategies Beattie Dillard Paley and Redmon in divergent ways rely heavily upon narrative gaps surfaces and silences often suggesting depths which are lamentably absent from modern experience or which mysteriously elude language For Kingston and Walker verbal assertiveness is the focus of narratives depicting the gradual empowerment of female protagonists who learn to speak themselves into existence Ozick and Tyler disrupt conventional reader expectations of the anti novel and the family novel respectively Finally Morrison's and Piercy's works reveal how traditional narrative forms such as the Bildungsroman and the soap opera are adaptable to feminist purposes In examining the writings of these ten important women authors this book illuminates a significant moment in literary history when women's voices are profoundly reshaping American literary tradition

Performing the Literary Interview John Rodden, 2001-01-01 When authors are interviewed about their books or themselves much more is going on than a simple conversation The interview becomes a performance space for authorial orchestration and self promotion and interviewers in turn respond to such self display and theatrics Featuring absorbing conversations with nine well known authors including poets Richard Howard and Gerald Stern novelist Isabel Allende and scholar intellectual Camille Paglia Performing the Literary Interview is the first in depth look at this type of performance art Interviews with poets fiction writers and intellectuals enable John Rodden to identify a range of rhetorical strategies and their effects and to formulate a typology for appreciating the various roles that interviewers and interviewees assume Traditionalists foreground their work rather than themselves raconteurs are storytellers who skillfully spin anecdotes and creatively showcase their personalities and advertisers more explicitly use the literary interview to promote and sell themselves This pioneering persuasive study stakes a claim to a new area of scholarly inquiry in the humanities The literary interview can no longer be considered only as a voyeuristic window on an author or a celebrity vehicle or even an entertaining diversion but should also be approached as a serious genre meriting scholarly attention and analysis Women and the American Left Mari Jo Buhle,1983 Living Beyond the Gender Trap Heike Gerds,2004
