The Last White Parliament:

The Last White Parliament Frederik van Zyl Slabbert, 1985 The Last Afrikaner Leaders Hermann

Giliomee, 2013-11-15 Finalist for the Alan Paton Award In his latest book renowned historian Hermann Giliomee challenges the conventional wisdom on the downfall of white rule and the end of apartheid Instead of impersonal forces or the resourcefulness of an indomitable resistance movement he emphasizes the role of Nationalist leaders and of their outspoken critic Frederick van Zyl Slabbert What motivated each of the last Afrikaner leaders from Verwoerd to de Klerk How did each try to reconcile economic growth white privilege and security with the demands of an increasingly assertive black leadership and unexpected population figures In exploring each leader's background reasoning and personal foibles Giliomee takes issue with the assumption that South Africa was inexorably heading for an ANC victory in 1994 He argues that historical accidents radically affected the course of politics Drawing on primary sources and personal interviews Giliomee offers a fresh and stimulating political history that attempts not to condemn but to understand why the last Afrikaner leaders did what they did and why their own policies ultimately failed them A 2014 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Reconsiderations in Southern African History Slabbert Albert Grundlingh, 2021-01-25 Frederik van Zyl Slabbert was a man on a mission whether as an academic an opposition politician a democratic facilitator or a businessman Perhaps this was a product of his restless probing intellect or his early ambition to become a dominee in the Dutch Reformed Church When he famously led a delegation of leading Afrikaners to Dakar in 1987 to meet the exiled ANC many saw it as a breakthrough while others felt he had been taken in And yet his reputation for honesty integrity wit and courage still towers above many of his contemporaries Slabbert was always different As an academic turned politician the charismatic Slabbert brought unusual intellectual rigour to Parliament transforming the upstart Progressive Federal Party into a force that challenged the National Party government But disillusioned by the paralysis of formal white politics and by the growing polarisation of South African society he resigned in 1986 to explore democratic alternatives to the impasse into which the country had been led under apartheid Largely sidelined during the democratic transition he continued to pursue a broad range of initiatives aimed at building democracy empowering black South Africans and transforming the economy Albert Grundlingh's penetrating biographical study offers sharp insights into the thinking and motivation of this most unlikely politician Concise but wide ranging Slabbert Man on a Mission provides new perspectives on a figure who even today remains something of an enigma Reformed Churches in South Africa and the Struggle for Justice Marry-Anne Plaatjies-Van Huffel, Robert Vosloo, 2013-11-01 The various contributions in this informative and exciting volume explore the ambivalent and complex history of Reformed faith during the years 1960 to 1990 in apartheid South Africa In the process light is shed on the role of Reformed churches in the struggle for justice freedom and dignity Parameters are simultaneously provided for defining the public role of Reformed faith in contemporary South Africa in the context of Africanisation and globalisation Prof Nico Koopman Dean of the Faculty of Theology Stellenbosch University The South African State Transformed? Louis A. Picard, Thomas M. Mogale, Caitlin C. Corrigan, 2024-09-10 This book examines the nature of the 1994 political transition in South Africa and its impact on post apartheid South Africa Specifically it examines the failures of liberalism within the context of the transitional process that led to the institution if not the practice of a non racial state in 1994 The term liberal is an eclectic term defining a several of views political and economic We use the term here within context but essentially define it as a commitment to open views the willingness to consider change and to value basic human rights The nature of institutional change in South Africa as it moved towards a democratic state would influence whether South Africa would succeed as a newly industrializing pluralist democratic country or collapse into yet another African failed state As South Africa moves toward its fourth decade of majority rule the view towards the future is much less promising than it was in 1994 The Department of State Bulletin United States.
