The Killing Fields Of Third World Women:

The Killing Fields of Third World Women Elnora Worder, 2006 Women in the Third World Nelly P.

Stromquist, 2014-04-04 Ideal for researching the status and activities of Third World women For quick reliable coverage of women's issues in developing countries here is a concise reference work written by a team of more than 80 international experts The Encyclopedia comprises 68 essays that cover the entire Third World from Africa to Asia from the Near East to South and Central America from the South Pacific to the Caribbean The women authors are acknowledged experts from Harvard University the World Bank the United Nations Development Fund for Women the University of Nairobi the International Labor Organization and other institutions who summarize the most recent scholarship on a wide range of important subjects Thoroughly indexed and cross referenced the Encyclopedia is an ideal starting point for in depth research in such areas as recent developments in the prevention of violence against women the conditions of women's lives across regions and countries women's participation in government science and technology hidden curriculum issues in higher education an overview of women's experiences as small scale entrepreneurs A feminist viewpoint enhances the coverage Informed throughout by a feminist perspective the Encyclopedia focuses on traditional women's concerns such as political participation human rights nutrition housework the family equality health and more But the coverage also extends to such issues as domestic and sexual violence creation of women friendly cities patriarchal ideologies as religious beliefs the needs of older women new jobs and exploitation in industrial production AIDS the gender consequences of ecological devastation movements for change and other areas of increasing awareness Geographical entries cover all the major regions and countries and discuss conditions and issues in each area Spotlights the newest and best sources The Encyclopedia brings together information that has been widely scattered in sources from many disciplines An introduction by the editor illuminates the most important issues faced by Third World women today and analyzes the drastically changed global situation and how the changes impacted on the material presented in the Encyclopedia Reference aids make information retrieval easy An annotated bibliography of the latest and most important sources as well as a reference list at the end of each chapter provide quick access to current literature A thorough name and subject index makes it easy to pinpoint information Special Features Offers articles by recognized scholars and activists on gender and developmental issues Presents a variety of perspectives by women from both industrialized and developing countries Summarizes the literature of established disciplines bringing together important material scattered in many sources Identifies new areas for research affecting gender and development in emerging fields such as legal rights Outlines strategies for action in such critical areas as ecology and urban issues An annotated bibliography and list of references at end of each chapter make it easy to expand your research Women in the Third World Lynne Brydon, 1989 Women in the Third World provides an up to date general account and review of research on the roles and status of women in contemporary Third World societies The book focuses on four major themes of underdevelopment which have particular relevance for gender roles and relations the household production reproduction and policy These issues are illustrated with material from rural and urban areas in all parts of the Third World The book summarizes significant ideas and findings Lynne Brydon and Sylvia Chang have avoided a narrow focus on particular regions and countries to provide a synoptic overview In addition to being a valuable source of reference for scholars interested in gender and development in the Third World the book also attempts to pinpoint fundamental aspects of gender inequality which apply to women everywhere The overriding conclusion of the book is that women s experiences of development are generally negative and that intervention is urgently required to prevent their positions relative to men s deteriorating still further

Movement Media Rachel Kuo, Assistant Professor of Gender and Women's Studies and Asian American Studies Rachel Kuo, 2025-10-09 In Movement Media Rachel Kuo assesses the possibilities and limitations of crafting solidarities through media making processes and communication practices Drawing on interviews archival research and ethnographic fieldwork Kuo revisits key social movements to assess the mundane and less visible forms of movement building that help various groups navigate the politics of difference in theory and in practice Kuo situates these movements alongside shifts in technological developments and the communication landscape making the case that building and sustaining solidarity requires time and work to develop shared political analysis and practices

Space, Place, and Violence James A. Tyner, 2012-05-02 Direct interpersonal violence is a pervasive yet often mundane feature of our day to day lives paradoxically violence is both ordinary and extraordinary Violence in other words is often hidden in plain sight Space Place and Violence seeks to uncover that which is too apparent to critically question both violent geographies and the geographies of violence With a focus on direct violence this book situates violent acts within the context of broader political and structural conditions Violence it is argued is both a social and spatial practice Adopting a geographic perspective Space Place and Violence provides a critical reading of how violence takes place and also produces place Specifically four spatial vignettes home school streets and community are introduced designed so that students may think critically how race sex gender and class inform violent geographies and geographies of violence

From Outrage to Courage: The Unjust and Unhealthy Situation of Women in Poorer Countries and What They are Doing About It Anne Firth Murray, 2013 From sex selective abortions to millions of girls who are disappeared from 90 million girls who do not go to school to HIV AIDS spreading fastest among adolescent girls women face unique health challenges writes Anne Firth Murray In this searing cradle to grave review Murray tackles health issues from prenatal care to challenges faced by aging women Looking at how gender inequality affects basic nutrition Murray makes clear the issues are political more than they are medical In an inspiring look From Outrage to Courage shows how women are organizing the world over Women s courage to transform their situations and communities provides inspiration and models for change From China to India from Indonesia to Kenya Anne Firth Murray takes readers on a whirlwind tour of devastation and resistance from amazon com

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike *U.N.
