publications in the Fela Project The African-British Long Eighteenth Century Tcho Mbaimba Caulker,2009-03-16

Tracing the development of British colonial administration in West Africa over the course of the long eighteenth century Caulker illuminates the solidification of the administration as it goes through a learning process of power This book analyzes the documents and treaties that the indigenous peoples of eighteenth century Sierra Leone made with their future British colonizers and compares them with the writings of Adam Smith to uncover a colonial philosophy linking European economic success with the process of civilizing Africa through moral education A discussion of other archival materials demonstrates the ways that an emerging anthropological science and pseudo scientific methodology contributed to colonial ventures and exploration The book concludes with an analysis of the postcolonial novel The Last Harmattan of Alusine Dunbar demonstrating that the study of this long eighteenth century archive has as much to do with the present postcolonial era as it does with the period of African colonization The Power to Name Stephanie Newell,2013-07-15

Between the 1880s and the 1940s the region known as British West Africa became a dynamic zone of literary creativity and textual experimentation African owned newspapers offered local writers numerous opportunities to contribute material for publication and editors repeatedly defined the press as a vehicle to host public debates rather than simply as an organ to disseminate news or editorial ideology Literate locals responded with great zeal and in increasing numbers as the twentieth century progressed they sent in letters articles fiction and poetry for publication in English and African language newspapers The Power to Name offers a rich cultural history of this phenomenon examining the wide array of anonymous and pseudonymous writing practices to be found in African owned newspapers between the 1880s and the 1940s and the rise of celebrity journalism in the period of anticolonial nationalism Stephanie Newell has produced an account of colonial West Africa that skillfully shows the ways in which colonized subjects used pseudonyms and anonymity to alter and play with colonial power and constructions of African identity The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S.

Pulis,1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Athens of West Africa Daniel J. Paracka, Jr.,2004-03-01 This book is about Fourah Bay College FBC and its role as an institution of higher learning in both its African and international context The study traces the College s development through periods of missionary education 1816 1876 colonial education 1876 1938 and development education 1938 2001 Africa Air University (U.S.). Library,1993

When the State Fails Tunde Zack-Williams,2011-12-05 Compared with Iraq Afghanistan and Kosovo the recent western intervention in Sierra Leone has been largely forgotten When the State Fails rectifies this providing a comprehensive and critical analysis of the intervention The civil war in Sierra Leone began in 1991 and was declared officially over in 2002 after UK UN and regional African military intervention Some claimed it as a case of successful humanitarian intervention The authors in this collection provide an informed analysis of the impact of the intervention on democracy development and society in Sierra Leone The authors take a particularly critical view of the imposition of neoliberalism after the conflict As NATO intervention in Libya shows the continued use of external force in internal conflicts When the State Fails is a timely book for all students and scholars interested in Africa and the question of humanitarian intervention African Print Cultures Derek Peterson,Steph Newell,Emma Hunter,2016-09-29 The essays collected in African Print Cultures claim African newspapers as subjects of historical and literary study Newspapers were not only vehicles for anticolonial nationalism They were also incubators of literary experimentation and networks by which new solidarities came into being By focusing on the creative work that African editors and contributors did this volume brings an infrastructure of African public culture into view The first of four thematic sections African Newspaper Networks considers the work that newspaper editors did to relate events within their locality to happenings in far off places This work of correlation and juxtaposition made it possible for distant people to see themselves as fellow travellers Experiments with Genre explores how newspapers nurtured the development of new literary genres such as poetry realist fiction photoplays and travel writing in African languages and in English Newspapers and Their Publics looks at the ways in which African newspapers fostered the creation of new kinds of communities and served as networks for public interaction political and otherwise The final section Afterlives is about the longue dur e of history that newspapers helped to structure and how throughout the twentieth century print allowed contributors to view their writing as material meant for posterity
