The Last Frontiers On Earth:

The Chronicles of America Series: The last frontier, 1918 The Last Frontier Courtney Ryley Cooper, 1923 The Last Frontier Edward Alexander Powell, 1912 The Geopolitics of Deep Oceans John Hannigan, 2016-01-11 Long regarded as an empty and inhospitable environment the deep ocean is rapidly emerging as an ecological hot spot with a remarkable diversity of biological life Yet the worlds oceans are currently on a dangerous trajectory of decline threatened by acidification oil and gas drilling overfishing and in the long term deep sea mining bioprospecting and geo engineering In The Geopolitics of Deep Oceans noted environmental sociologist John Hannigan examines the past present and future of our planets final frontier The author argues that our understanding of the deep its definition boundaries value ownership health and future state depends on whether we see it first and foremost as a resource cornucopia a political chessboard a shared commons or a unique and threatened ecology He concludes by locating a new storyline that imagines the oceans as a canary in the mineshaft for gauging the impact of global climate change The Geopolitics of Deep Oceans is a unique introduction to the geography law politics and sociology of the sub surface ocean It will appeal to anyone seriously concerned about the present state and future fate of the largest single habitat for life on our planet The Spacefaring Earth Michael G. Smith, 2024-12-04 This engaging survey of the Space Age links science and technology with politics and popular culture war and peace and crises and controversies It examines the history of spaceflight as a mirror of human thought and action across the Earth The volume encompasses the new astronomy and sciences of the modern era the early dreamers and pioneers after 1903 the national competitions of the First World War the rocket states that prepared for the Second World War the rivalries and space race of the Cold War between the US and USSR as well as more recent developments including the Space Shuttle the International Space Station national space programs orbital technologies transhumanism and military and commercial ventures in space It also stresses the importance of geography in the geopolitics of spaceflight competition and in the nature of the planetary biosphere Taking a chronological approach to lived human experience and threshold achievements the chapters show how these themes have been reflected in literature art music film and our new digital worlds This book is essential reading for students of the history of the Space Age as well as an excellent companion to courses on twentieth century science and technology the Cold War and American history Defense Industry Bulletin, 1968 The Politics of Dispossession Edward W. Said, 2012-10-24 Author of the groundbreaking The Question of Palestine Edward Said has been America s most outspoken advocate for Palestinian self determination As these collected essays amply prove he is also our most intelligent and bracingly heretical writer on affairs involving not only Palestinians but also the Arab and Muslim worlds and their tortuous relations with the West Solidly imbued with historical context and geopolitical conjecture fresh unpredictable personal and incorruptible writing Boston Globe In The Politics of Dispossession Said traces his people s struggle for statehood through twenty five years of exile from the PLO s bloody 1970 exile from Jordan through the debacle of the Gulf War and the ambiguous 1994 peace accord with Israel As frank as he is about his personal involvement in that struggle Said is equally unsparing in his demolition of Arab icons and American shibboleths Stylish impassioned and informed by a magisterial knowledge of history and literature The Politics of Dispossession is a masterly synthesis of scholarship and polemic that has the power to redefine the debate over the Middle East Mission Frontiers Volume 1 Ralph D. Winter,2004 Transnational Frontiers of Asia and Latin America since 1800 Jaime Moreno Tejada,Bradley Tatar,2016-08-19 Frontiers are wild The frontier is a zone of interaction between distinct polities peoples languages ecosystems and economies but how do these frontier spaces develop If the frontier is shaped by the policing of borders by the modern nation state then what kind of zones regions or cultural areas are created around borders This book provides 16 different case studies of frontiers in Asia and Latin America by interdisciplinary scholars charting the first steps toward a transnational and transcontinental history of social development in the borderlands of two continents Transnationalism provides a shared focus for the contributions drawing upon diverse theoretical perspectives to examine the place making projects of nation states Through the lenses of different scales and time frames the contributors examine the social processes of frontier life and how the frontiers have been created through the exertions of nation states to control marginal or borderland peoples The most significant cases of industrialization resource extraction and colonization projects in Asia and Latin America are examined in this book reveal the incompleteness of frontiers as modernist spatial projects but also their creativity as sources of new social patterns new human adaptations and new cultural outlooks and ways of confronting power and privilege The incompleteness of frontiers does not detract from their power to move ideas peoples and practices across borders both territorial and conceptual In bringing together Asian and Latin American cases of frontier making this book points toward a comparativist and cosmopolitan approach in the study of statecraft and modernity For scholars of Latin America and or Asia it brings together historical themes and geographic foci providing studies accessible to researchers in anthropology geography history politics cultural studies and other fields of the human sciences The National Space Program, Present and Future United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science and Astronautics. Subcommittee on NASA Oversight,1970 Muskox Land Lyle Dick,2001 Muskox Land provides a meticulously researched and richly illustrated treatment of Canada s High Arctic as it interweaves insights from historiography Native studies ecology anthropology and polar exploration Land Use, Nature Conservation and the Stability of Rainforest Margins in Southeast Asia Gerhard Gerold,Michael Fremerey,Edi Guhardja,2004-01-12 The stability of rainforest margins has been identified as a critical factor in the preservation of tropical forests e g in Southeast Asia one of the world s most extensive rainforest regions This book contains a selection of contributions presented at an international symposium on Land Use Nature Conservation and the Stability of Rainforest Margins in Bogor Indonesia October 2002 It highlights the critical issue of rainforest preservation from an interdisciplinary perspective comprising input from scientists in socio economic biological geographical agrarian and forestry disciplines The contributions are based on recent empirical research with a special focus on Indonesia a country with one of the highest and at the same time most endangered stocks of rainforest resources on earth

Words for a Dying World Hannah Malcolm,2020-12-07 How do we talk about climate grief in the church And when we have found the words what do we do with that grief There is a sudden and dramatic rise in people experiencing a profound sense of anxiety in the face of our dying planet and a consequent need for churches to be better resourced pastorally and theologically to deal with this threat Words for a Dying World brings together voices from across the world from the Pacific islands to the pipelines of Canada from farming communities in Namibia to activism in the UK Author royalties from the sale of this book are split evenly between contributors The majority will be pooled as a donation to ClientEarth The remainder will directly support the communities represented in this collection Contributors include Anderson Jeremiah Azariah France Williams David Benjamin Blower Holly Anna Petersen Isabel Mukonyora Jione Havea and Maggi Dawn

Politics and the Urban Frontier Tom Goodfellow,2022-09-26 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Despite the rise of global technocratic ideals of city making cities around the world are not merging into indistinguishable duplicates of one another In fact as the world urbanizes urban formations remain diverse in their socioeconomic and spatial characteristics with varying potential to foster economic development and social justice In this book Tom Goodfellow argues that these differences are primarily rooted in politics and if we continue to view cities as economic and technological projects to be managed rather than terrains of political bargaining and contestation the quest for better urban futures is doomed to fail Dominant critical approaches to urban development tend to explain difference with reference to the variegated impacts of neoliberal regulatory institutions This however neglects the multiple ways in which the wider politics of capital accumulation and distribution drive divergent forms of transformation in different urban places In order to unpack the politics that shapes differential urban development this book focuses on East Africa as the global urban frontier the least urbanized but fastest urbanizing region in the world Drawing on a decade of research spanning three case study countries Ethiopia Rwanda and Uganda Politics and the Urban Frontier provides the first sustained book length comparative analysis of urban development trajectories in Eastern Africa and the political dynamics that underpin them Through a focus on infrastructure investment urban propertyscapes street level trading economies and urban political protest it offers a multi scalar historically grounded and interdisciplinary analysis of the urban transformations unfolding in the world s most dynamic crucible of urban change

New World Orderings Lisa Rofel,Carlos Rojas,2022-11-09 The contributors to New World Orderings demonstrate that China s twenty first century rise occurs not only through economics and state politics but equally through the mutual entanglements of overlapping social economic and cultural worlds in Southeast Asia Africa and Latin America They show how the Chinese state has sought to reconfigure the nation's position in the world and the centrality of trade labor religion migration gender race and literature to this reconfiguration Among other topics the contributors examine China's post Bandung cultural diplomacy with African nations how West African pastor entrepreneurs in China interpreted and preached the prosperity doctrine the diversity of Chinese Argentine social relations in the soy supply chain and the ties between China and India within the complex history of inter Asian exchange and Chinese migration to Southeast Asia By examining China's long historical relationship with the Global South this volume presents a non state centric history of China that foregrounds the importance of transnational communicative and imaginative worldmaking processes and interactions Contributors Andrea Bachner Luciano Dami n Bolinaga Nellie Chu Rachel Cypher Mingwei Huang T Tu Huynh Yu lin Lee Ng Kim Chew Lisa Rofel Carlos Rojas Shuang Shen Derek Sheridan Nicolai Volland
