

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a river at sunset. The sky is a deep, vibrant orange-red, with some wispy clouds. The river is calm, reflecting the warm colors of the sky. On the left bank, there is a dense line of trees and bushes, some of which are in the foreground, partially obscuring the water. The right bank is also lined with trees, which are silhouetted against the bright sky. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

The Last Station Sunil Cheriakudy, 2020-11-26 Sunil's stories have the trappings of self expression It is like the feeling of satiation of a fruit laden tree that droops brazenly flaunting its uterus above all other parts of the anatomy In every fruit there is a seed of love It silently implores the reader to relish on the sweet pulp and to plant the seed in the fertile expanse of the heart Sunil writes with an earnestness The resultant tune of literature is the realization that the diversities of the universe are cemented together by a beautiful love Such stories are few though the genre of stories made its debut long back
