Sisters Brigid McConville, Sisters and Rivals in British Women's Fiction, 1914-39 D. Wallace, 2000-06-21 What happens when two women love the same man This is the first book to examine female rivalry as a distinctive theme in women's fiction and to analyze the female identified erotic triangle where two women are rivals for the same man as a narrative pattern which has a special resonance for inter war women writers Focusing on five key writers Diana Wallace offers a reconsideration of inter war women's writing and an examination of the links and rivalries between women writers themselves

Shadows in the Sun Betty Davies, 2015-12-22 Shadows in the Sun covers the immediate short and long term responses and subsequent generational effects of sibling bereavement and discusses sibling responses in the context of the variables which influence them The final chapter synthesizes all that has gone before into a comprehensive model of sibling bereavement Practical guidelines are offered for those who seek to help grieving siblings children and families

Family Ties and Aging Ingrid Arnet Connidis, Amanda E. Barnett, 2018-10-05 Providing an integrated and thorough representation from current research and contemporary society Family Ties and Aging shows how pressing issues of our time an aging population changing family structures and new patterns of work family balance are negotiated in the family lives of middle aged and older adults Focusing on key questions such as How do current trends and social arrangements affect family relationships and What are the implications of what we know for future research theory practice and policy authors Ingrid Arnet Connidis and Amanda E Barnett explore groups and relationships that are typically overlooked including the unique family situations of older single and childless persons sibling ties older lesbian and gay adults and new forms of intimate relationships The Third Edition is thoroughly updated to include the latest research and theoretical developments recent media coverage of related issues and new information on intimate relationships in later life and elder neglect abuse

No Friend Like a Sister Jenny Neale, 2004 Publisher description

Ftm Aaron Devor, 2016-08-29 In this ground breaking study Aaron Devor provides a compassionate intimate and incisive look at the life experiences of forty five trans men Emerging into 21st century political and social conversations questions persist Who are they How do they come to know themselves as men What do they do about it How do their families respond Who are their lovers What does it mean for everyone else To answer these and other questions Devor spent years compiling in depth interviews and researching the lives of transsexual and transgender people Here he traces the everyday and significant events that coalesce into trans identities culminating in gender and sex transformations Using trans men's own words as illustrations Devor looks at how childhood adolescence and adult experiences with family members peers and lovers work to shape and clarify their images of themselves as men With a new introduction Devor positions the volume in twenty first century debates of identity politics and community building and provides a window into his own self exploration as a result of his research

Sibling Relationships Prophecy Coles, 2018-04-24 For this volume the author has brought together a group of distinguished writers to explore a wide range of issues affecting sibling relationships This exciting collection of papers addresses a long neglected subject in psychoanalytic thinking Since Sigmund Freud psychoanalytic attention has focused firmly on the Oedipal triangle and as a consequence sibling relationships have languished in virtual oblivion In recent years the importance of siblings has started to be investigated but we are still at the beginning of formulating theory on this subject This book raises fascinating issues for therapists who are forging new forms of thought on the interplay of sibling relationships Contributors Leonore Davidoff R D Hinshelwood Vivienne Lewin Juliet Mitchell Elspeth Morley Estelle Roith Margaret Rustin Michael Rustin Jennifer Silverstone Harriet Thistlethwaite and Gary Winship

They F*** You Up Oliver James, 2007-01-01 A new edition of the groundbreaking and potentially life changing book that shows how our earliest experiences make us what we are Human Nature and Suffering Paul Gilbert, 2016-08-05 Human Nature and Suffering is a profound comment on the human condition from the perspective of evolutionary psychology Paul Gilbert explores the implications of humans as evolved social animals suggesting that evolution has given rise to a varied set of social competencies which form the basis of our personal knowledge and understanding Gilbert shows how our primitive competencies become modified by experience both satisfactorily and unsatisfactorily He highlights how cultural factors may modify and activate many of these primitive competencies leading to pathology proneness and behaviours that are collectively survival threatening These varied themes are brought together to indicate how the social construction of self arises from the organization of knowledge encoded within the competencies This Classic Edition features a new introduction from the author bringing Gilbert's early work to a new audience The book will be of interest to clinicians researchers and historians in the field of psychology Sisters Brigid McConville, 1985

Worlds Between Leonore Davidoff, 2013-05-29 This book presents a series of pioneering studies which together constitute a reappraisal of our understanding of the relationship between gender and history Devoted Sisters Sarah Annes Brown, 2003 Devoted Sisters seeks to explore and explain the power of the sister bond in nineteenth century literature Sarah Annes Brown has researched a wide range of British and American texts including both canonical works such as Pride and Prejudice Little Women and Middlemarch and fascinating but lesser known novels by authors such as Dinah Mulock Craik and Catharine Sedgwick In addition to contemporary resources such as conduct books letters and accounts of parliamentary proceedings Devoted Sisters draws on recent psychoanalytical and anthropological research to illuminate nineteenth century depictions of the sister relationship Building on the work of Girard and Kosofsky Sedgwick Brown concludes her study with an exploration of the Deceased Wife's Sister Act and the lesbian incest effect Why I Hate You and You Hate Me Joseph H. Berke, 2018-04-17 This book considers the experience of envy greed jealousy and narcissism and how they operate between parents and children brothers and sisters It focuses on the object of these harmful emotions what attracts malice to them and how they may arouse it The Tyranny of Malice Joseph H.
