Sinascapes Gary G. Xu, 2007 Sinascapes Contemporary Chinese Cinema is one of the most comprehensive studies of transnational Chinese language films at the turn of the millennium Gary Xu combines a close reading of contemporary movies from China Taiwan and Hong Kong with an intimate look into the transnational Chinese film industry based on his working relationship with filmmakers He coins the word sinascapes to reflect on the intersection between Chinese cinema and global cultural production referring to cinematic representations of ethnic Chinese people around the globe Sinascapes describes contemporary Chinese cinema as a global network and a group of contact zones where ideologies clash new identities emerge through both border crossings and resistance to globalization and visual innovations and progressive visions become possible General readers film enthusiasts and critics alike will benefit from Xu's discussion of popular film which leads to a broader conversation about China's economic transformations global politics and cultural production Including discussion of films like Hero House of Flying Daggers Kung Fu Hustle Devils on the Doorstep Suzhou River Beijing Bicycle Millennium Mambo Goodbye Dragon Inn and Hollywood Hong Kong the book emphasizes the transnational nature of contemporary Chinese cinema

The Age of Elephants Peter Moss, 2006-06 The filaments that enmeshed them in Durbar Court were the stories they wove Leila who never contributed any herself claimed that without them the resident behemoths would fall permanently asleep It was a soporific summer An extraordinary summer as if the mechanism of the seasons had broken down stranding them in a time locked vault of cloudless blue The garden parasols were giant sundials around which carousels of shadow clocked the intervals from breakfast to supper Only the bearers punctuated the hours padding out to them with trays of lemon cordial and iced tea This second novel by Peter Moss whose first The Singing Tree was described by the New York Times as a little gem draws heavily upon his memories of an Indian childhood to populate a recreated cameo of imperial India set on the south coast of England Here relics of the British Raj living out their sequestered lives immersed in nostalgia for a long lost world lead a casual visitor to confront memories he has desperately endeavoured to erase A graceful elaborate tale of innocents yearning for home Moss has been a firsthand witness to the fading glory of the British diaspora in exotic locales like India Hong Kong and the Philippines Here he draws heavily on a childhood spent in India to recreate the experiences of expatriates repatriated against their will caught between a glorious spiritual home and the draw of Queen and country Moss fosters a charming colonial memory that will speak clearly to anyone who's been away from home a long time A romanticized tragic remembrance of well loved experiences Kirkus
