Gender, Mastery and Slavery William Foster, 2009-12-18 Gender family and sexual relations defined human slavery from its classical origins in Europe to the rise and fall of race based slavery in the Americas Gender Mastery and Slavery is one of the first books to explore the importance of men and women to slaveholding across these eras Foster argues that at the heart of the successive European institutions of slavery at home and in the New World was the volatile question of women s ability to exert mastery Facing the challenge to play the good mother in public and private free women from Rome to Muslim North Africa to the indigenous tribes of North America to the antebellum plantations of the southern United States found themselves having to economically manage slaves servants and captives At the same time they had to protect their reputations from various forms of attack and themselves from vilification on a number of fronts With the recurrent cultural wars over the maternal role within slavery touching the worlds of politics warfare religion and colonial and imperial rivalries this lively comparative survey is essential reading for anyone studying or simply interested in this key topic in global and gender history Creole Sybil Kein, 2000-08 The word Creole evokes a richness rivaled only by the term s widespread misunderstanding Now both aspects of this unique people and culture are given thorough illuminating scrutiny in Creole a comprehensive multidisciplinary history of Louisiana s Creole population Written by scholars many of Creole descent the volume wrangles with the stuff of legend and conjecture while fostering an appreciation for the Creole contribution to the American mosaic The collection opens with a historically relevant perspective found in Alice Moore Dunbar Nelson s 1916 piece People of Color of Louisiana and continues with contemporary writings Joan M Martin on the history of quadroon balls Michel Fabre and Creole expatriates in France Barbara Rosendale Duggal with a debiased view of Marie Laveau Fehintola Mosadomi and the downtrodden roots of Creole grammar Anthony G Barthelemy on skin color and racism as an American legacy Caroline Senter on Reconstruction poets of political vision and much more Violet Harrington Bryan Lester Sullivan Jennifer DeVere Brody Sybil Kein Mary Gehman Arthi A Anthony and Mary L Morton offer excellent commentary on topics that range from the lifestyles of free women of color in the nineteenth century to the Afro Caribbean links to Creole cooking By exploring the vibrant yet marginalized culture of the Creole people across time Creole goes far in diminishing past and present stereotypes of this exuberant segment of our society A study that necessarily embraces issues of gender race and color class and nationalism it speaks to the tensions of an increasingly ethnically mixed mainstream America
