Song Of Time:

Song of Time Ian R. MacLeod, 2018-08-15 Winner of the Arthur C Clarke and the John W Campbell Memorial awards for Best Science Fiction Novel Song of Time begins with an old woman discovering a half drowned man on a Cornish beach in the furthest days of this strange century She once a famous concert violinist is close to death herself or a new kind of life she can barely contemplate Does death still exist at all or has finally been extinguished And who is this strange man she s found Is he a figure returned from her own past a new messiah or an empty vessel Filled with love music death and life and spanning the world from the prim English suburbs of Birmingham to the wild inventions of a new Renaissance Paris to a post apocalyptic India Song of Time tells the story of this century and confronts the ultimate leap into a new kind of existence and whatever lies beyond Praise for Song of Time MacLeod s quiet meditative novels and stories have been winning critical acclaim for years and Song of Time sees him at the height of his powers At the end of a long and eventful life celebrated violinist Roushana Maitland orders her memories before she passes from the world of the flesh to a virtual afterlife When she finds a mysterious stranger washed up on the beach of her Cornish retreat he facilitates the process of remembrance In flashback chapters we follow Roushana s turbulent life through the cataclysmic events of the 21st century taking in the deaths of loved ones marriage to a conductor entrepreneur and a final heartbreaking revelation Song of Time is a slow sensitive first person account of what it means to be human and vulnerable and confirms MacLeod as one of the country s very best literary SF writers The Guardian
